FLORA.

Mrs. Paul Moore came over from Grouse Saturday, for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Eddlemon.

Mrs. A. D. Buzzard is quite sick at the present writing. Dr. Stevenson is the attending physician.

Messrs. Edwards and Hooper made a trip to Elgin a few days ago for the purpose of bringing in Mr. and Mrs. Church, who are on their way to this country to find a home for the future. Mrs. Church is a granddaughter of Mr. Edwards.

Mr. Fleet of Arko brought a bunch of hogs to town last Wednesday and sold them to Sam Applegate.

Mr. Bert Wisdom and family of Pilot Rock, came in by private conveyance one day last week. The lady and children will make an extended visit with Mrs. W's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Mencl.

Mrs. Hooper came in from Wallowa a few days ago for a visit with her brother Jess Conley.

F. A. Day and family came in from Grande Ronde valley last week on a visit with Mrs. D's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McCall. They were accompanied by Mrs. Brant of North Powder, who is a sister to Mrs. McCall.

Charles Whitmore and Lincoln Austin made a trip to the county seat last week.

New steps and a side walk were built in front of the M. E. church last week. This is quite a convenience for the church goers.

Orlan Merklin had his hand badly cut at the Wilsey saw mill last Wednesday. Dr. Stephenson dressed the wound.

Mr. Adams and wife of Wallowa were in town the first of last week. He will soon commence to carry the mail between Paradise and Wallowa.

A. D. Allen is in this part of the county again making preparations to put in the fish hatchery on the Grande Ronde river.

Rev. Walker preached to a large and appreciative audience in the M. E. church Sunday.

Mrs. Wright of Cove, mother of Willis Wright, came in last week and is now on the sick list.

Dr. Stevenson made a trip to Lewiston last week and brought in a new buggy to use while practising.

A large number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Knight of Lost Prairie gathered at their home Saturday evening to make them a surprise visit and tell them goodbye, as they were to start for their future home in Lewiston the first of the week.

Mrs. George Lightle is still on the sick list.

A bucking pack horse was the cause of Mr. Pedro losing a good many pounds of salt Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Tracy were up from the river Saturday.

The teachers' meeting Saturday was well attended. Prof. Kerns occupied the chair, and Mrs. Mae Whitmore acted as secretary. Much interest was taken in the discussions. A good paper on History, was read by Prof. Burns, and one on Number Work by Miss Nellie Beach. A splendid talk was given by Prof. Burns. Spelling by Prof. Conley, an interesting paper on Busy Work by Miss Nellie Buchanan, and a paper by Miss Clara Catron. The subject of spelling was thoroughly discussed, and while the present system was not condemned, it was decided that not enough attention was given that study. The following officers were elected:

President J. W. Kerns
Vice President Prof. Burns
Secretary Mrs. Nora Patten.
On account of parties, who were to have taken part in the program Saturday evening, not being present, the exercises were short. Good declamations were given by the Misses Manetta Cooper and Prue Eddlemon. Songs were sung and splendid address on books was given by Rev. Walker of Enterprise. Many visitors were present from the other communities.

FRUITA.

Ripe strawberries, and cream! !! The sheepmen are all out attending to shearing.

There is scarcely a day but some one passes en route to the mines up the river or over on Snake river.

Mr. Thomas of Pine valley visited friends on the Imnaha and talked of buying a stock ranch.

Bert Hodgins has returned from Mr. Miller's sheep camp.

The saw mill is running steady. W. F. Gillaspie has made a flying trip to the valley.

Joseph Lay and wife are at work at the mill.

Messrs. Bleavens, Morgan and Rich are expecting to go to the valley with teams the first of the week.

GROUSE.

Mr. Russell of Tucanyon arrived yesterday with A. D. Allen, the superintendent of the fish hatchery. Mr. Allen says he means to rack the river just as soon as possible. When asked about the construction of hatchery and other buildings, he said he was not prepared to answer that, that he had not had any such orders, but would do more work than last year. He turned loose 125,000 fish that were able to shift for themselves.

Mrs. Pallsiger and her two children, Frankie and Emma, came in from Walla Walla to see Fred's bounding big girl that was born April 2th. They are having a good time among their many friends.

This country has had a great run of North Carolina people. They seem to be well satisfied.

MARRIED:—Sunday, June 8, Wm. Ladd and Miss Green. We wish them success and happiness.

Additional Locals.

Mrs. Frank Clark, who has been ill for some time, is slowly improving.

Mrs. W. P. Samms and Mrs. J. S. Wagner are both quite sick at present.

Ralph Becket will start tomorrow for Pendleton where he will work in the harvest fields during the summer.

Mr. Buchanan, one of the experts on the county records completed the work Wednesday and started for Portland Thursday morning. No further report has been made by them as to the condition of the county. They will soon begin work on the county records of Union county.
