

Wallowa County News.

Is what you want when you subscribe for
A County Paper.

Look Over The

Wallowa Chieftain

And See That

It Gives the County News.

and

The price is $1.50 a year.

We offer some exceptional bargains in our CLUBBING RATES with other papers and magazines.

For Instance

Chieftain and Oregonian
both one year for $2.00.

Chieftain and Spokesman Review
both one year for $2.00

Chieftain and Examiner
both one year for $2.25.

The Chieftain and any of the $1 magazines one year for $2.50.

Address or Call on

The Wallowa Chieftain,
Enterprise, Or.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

IN AND ABOUT TOWN.

Picked Up Here And There By The Chieftain.

$100,000 to loan at 7 per cent interest on real estate security.

C. T. McDANIEL

Calvin will give you 15 cents a dozen for your eggs.

BOON.—June 18, to the wife of R. L. Day, a baby girl.

Dr. Seely of Lostine was a caller at the Chieftain office Monday.

If you want to buy a mower or rake it will pay you to see Calvin.

Mrs. E. H. Hinton and daughter started Monday for Montana.

Oranges, lemons and bananas at the Stationery Store in a few days.

Now is the paint season. Don't forget that John Calvin has the Heath and Milligan paint.

Boswell & Son sent two teams out to Elgin Monday with the families of D. H. Correll and Mrs. Hinton

D. S. Gardner and wife of Paradise are staying in the city for a few days while their sheep are being sheared.

Jacob Bauer has purchased the Gardner property recently owned by D. H. Correll and is busy at work finishing it up.

MARRIED.—At the home of D. W. Warnock, on Crow creek, June 12, Mr. Chas. Johnson and Mollie Perkins, both of Innaha.

D. H. Correll and family started for Elgin Monday, on their way to North Yakima, where they will make their home in the future.

MARRIED.—In this city June 18, 1902, Mr. Charles E. Norman and Nellie Russell, both of Joseph. Rev. Walker tied the nuptial knot.

Messrs. Hinshaw and Minstrel and wife of Iowa returned to their Eastern homes Tuesday. Prentiss Homan drove them out to Elgin.

Delbert Homan is carrying quite a bad lip and is missing three teeth, as a result of being knocked down and stepped on by a horse last Saturday.

C. P. Clark, one of the experts working on the county records started for Portland Monday morning. W. J. Roup assisted Mr. Buchanan until the work was completed.

Mrs. Bertie Roe started Tuesday morning for La Grande as a delegate from Almota Circle to the District Convention of the Women of Woodcraft which convened in that city Wednesday.

Frank Melotte came out from Innaha Wednesday on a business trip. He says they have harvested one crop of alfalfa and the prospects are flattering for two others. The fruit is looking fine.

E. E. Bowlby and C. A. Ault were elected delegates to the district convention of the Woodmen of the World which was held at Weston yesterday. Mr. Bowlby attended but Dr. Ault was unable to go.

George Post and Cal Benbow of Grande Ronde river, were in the city Wednesday with a load of vegetables from Mr. Post's place. He reports considerable excitement in that locality over the purchase of timber land.

Elmer Barton and wife returned Monday from a trip to Southern Oregon and California. While traveling they experienced a genuine train wreck in which a fireman was killed. Luckily none of the passengers were hurt.

T. R. Akin, E. R. Tripp and Dan Tripp returned Monday from their trip to the property of the Tenderfoot Gold Mining Co. They only made a preliminary camp and started back today with another pack train to establish a permanent camp.

Sheriff elect Shackleford returned Tuesday from Paradise where he completed the sale of his household goods and personal property to a good advantage. He is now busy preparing to go to housekeeping in Mrs. Weatherly's house in North part of town. Mrs. Weatherly will move out to her ranch on Prairie creek.

The top notch in the price paid for wool in Eastern Oregon or Washington was reached at Shaniko today when Tom Hamilton's wool brought 15 1/8 cents at the Wasco Warehouse there. Yesterday one-half million pounds were sold at that warehouse at from 12 1/4 to 14 1/2 cents and today three-quarters of a million changed hands. The record of these two days at Shaniko is a good one, and is said to be on a par with what the whole season will be.—The Dalles Chronicle

W. J. Lachner, attorney for the J. Muller Liquor Co., of Baker City, Or., arrived in the city Monday in the interest of his clients, who claim about $500 worth of goods, which were consigned to J. A. Alford and which the sheriff levied an execution against last week, pursuant to a judgement rendered in the circuit court against J. A. Alford and D. H. Correll in favor of J. L. Hammock. Mr. Lachner intended to replevin the goods from the sheriff but the matter was amicably settled between D. W. Sheahan, attorney for Mr. Hammock, and himself. Mr. Lachner is well known in this county as he canvassed it four years ago when a candidate for the office of District Attorney against Sam White. Mr. Lachner was much impressed with the spirit and enterprise shown by our city and spoke many encouraging words as to the future of the county seat of Wallowa county.

The Enterprise Cornet Band has been practicing very faithfully for several weeks in anticipation of the trip to Paradise for the celebration on July 4. Arrangements have about been completed for the trip, but it will be known definitely by next issue, when we hope to be able to make the announcement that they will be able to go.

F. A. Meade, La Grande, Ore., agent for Chickering, Kimball, Weber, Crown, Wheelock, Cable, Vose, Decker & Sons, Whitney, Hinze, Milton, and Singer pianos; Kimball, Crown, Burdette, Great Western, Needham, and Pacific Queen organs; Singer sewing machines and Empire Cream Separators. Prices lowest.

Five members of the medical fraternity met in this city Monday and organized the Wallowa County Medical Association. Dr. G. W. Gregg of Wallowa, is president, Dr. E. R. Seely, of Lostine, secretary, and Dr. Thompson of Joseph, and Temple and Ault of this city constitute a program committee.

Mrs. John Zucher, who some time ago went to Hot Lake to try the curative powers of those waters for inflammatory rheumatism, did not receive the benefit expected, and is now at the Cove at the home of her daughter Mrs. George Holmes, where she is slowly regaining her health.

W. P. Samms, W. W. White and wife and Mrs. E. W. Steel returned Friday from Baker City, where they were at the bedside of Mrs. D. G. Bricoux, who is a daughter of Mr. Samms and a sister of the two ladies. At last reports she was slowly recovering.

Miss Mary Zucher, who went to Monmouth last month to spend the summer at the home of Mrs. C. H. Zucher's parents, is in Corvallis this week visiting her brother James and enjoying the commencement exercises of the State Agricultural College.

We are in receipt of a communication regarding the smallpox, but owing to lack of space are unable to print it this week. Something should be done by the city authorities to prevent the further spread of the disease.

G. W. and S. M. Gobl and Miss Belle Hart started for Walla Walla Wednesday on a short excursion. They will cross the mountains with the family of A. M. Wagner who also started Wednesday.

Sheriff elect J. C. Shackleford and family arrived in the city last week from Paradise. They have rented the property of Mrs. L. R. Weatherly in the North part of town and will live there.

J. W. Nedrow was out from Grande Ronde river Friday on a hurried business trip. He says that he has young potatoes large enough for use, and will soon bring out a load to market.

Logan Beem brought a load of shingles over from Elgin last week for A. Wade and remained in the valley a few days looking after business affairs.

G. S. Reavis and E. R. Bowlby started Friday to outside points. Mr. Reavis went to La Grande and Mr. Bowlby to Pendleton.

F. A. Meade and G. M. Richey, rival dealers in musical instruments in La Grande, were looking after business in the city today.

Frank Chauvet and family have moved back into the Bowlby property after having spent the winter out in the Paradise country.

J. S. Hodgkin returned Saturday from Portland where he attended the Masonic Grand Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. George Voris have moved into the McReynold's property near the Presbyterian church.

Here We Come For

SPRING TRADE

Millinery at Cost

We are now offering at cost our entire stock of millinery, including the latest styles in Ladies', Misses and Children's hats, either plain or dress hats. Good hats for the Fourth at a low price.

Men's Furnishings

Have you ever put on a suit that felt as if it was made to your especial order? Isn't the satisfaction something unique in this day of cheap everything? Let us be surveyors to you of your suits, shirts, collars and small but necessary articles of men's wear and you will be surprised how much better your clothes will seem to fit you. Its like everything else; its the "know how."

Stock of Shoes

Made by the well known firm of Friedman Bros. for Ladies, gents, youths, misses and children. These shoes are flexible, which insures comfort; they are of superior leather which insures wear; they are over newest lasts, which insures fashion, and they are from a factory where care in making insures economy. My prices are as heretofore such as will save you money for you.

Paint for your house

Expert paint makers have given the Heath & Milligan paints the best qualities they they could have. They are the kind of paints that stick and wear well.

Garden & Flower Seeds

No need of sending away for seeds. We have any and all kinds and they will grow too.

John Calvin

Enterprise, Oregon.