INTERESTING ITEMS

From Various Sections of Wallowa County.

FLORA.

Rev. Marvin was in our community for two or three days last week. He preached in the M. E. church Wednesday evening.

Baker & Drake started three teams to Lewiston the first of the week after merchandise.

Photographer Davis took a picture of the residence of Newman McCall Monday.

Our road supervisor is working the men of our vicinity, and to a good advantage, as the roads are being fixed in fine shape.

Rev. Martin of Wallowa preached at the Star school house Sunday morning, and at Flora in the evening.

Johnson Day and Jess Richardson came in from Elgin last Thursday.

Grandpa Bacon was up from Lost Prairie last Wednesday.

Robert Haynes has gone out near Lostine to work for awhile. He filed on a claim over in Waverly before going.

Quite a number of the men of our vicinity will start for outside harvest fieids in the next two weeks.

It is said that all who attended the Paradise celebration enjoyed themselves. The program is said to have been good.

Quite a number of people attended the celebration on the river, though the inclement weather kept many away, as was also the case with Paradise.

Grain is growing beautifully.

Bud Rolls took a load of grain to Lostine from the Clark & Austin store last Wednesday.

IMNAHA.

Another Fourth is passed, and the two days celebration at this place was something of a failure owing to the rain. But the dances of the 3rd and 4th, given by Messrs. Hayes and Denny, in their new hall, was well attended and reported a success. An oyster supper was served the night of the 4th by Mrs. Hayes at her home.

Joseph Hayes Sr., of Walla Walla, is here on a visit to his relatives and to look after his interests in this section of the country.

James Rice and wife and Hugh Gibson and wife were up from Lower Imnaha to spend the Fourth.

Mrs. O. M. Chase has been on the sick list, but at last reports was improving.

Mrs. Edgmond and Mrs. Daugherty of Chesnimnus are down at the Hayes orchard for cherries.

Mail comes three times a week now, that is once better than twice, isn't it? For all but the postmaster.

Roy Edgemond, who has been at Jas. Hayes' for some time, will accompany his mother home.

O. B. STILL.

A large stock of the Champion Draw Cut mowers at the E. M. & M. Co. Store.

Teachers Employed.

A successful school for next winter is assured. The school board is to be congratulated in the hiring of Prof. Manning, who comes from Nebraska highly recommended. Prof. Manning prior to his coming to Wallowa county, was superintendent in his county for six years.

It is unnecessary to say anything in regard to the other two teachers, for Miss DeVore and Miss Forsythe are counted among Wallowa county's most successful teachers.

Petition Granted.

The resolutions passed by the Wallowa County Teacher's Association, at Wallowa, on May 10th, asking the County court to pay the cost of the printing of questions for the 5th, 6th and 7th grades, and for the buying and paying for certificates for those same grades, was granted by the County court.

The teachers of Wallowa county, will appreciate very much this kindness of the County court in granting them their petition.

It will be the duty of the County School Superintendent to appoint two competent teachers to assist him in framing questions for these grades.

Tracy.

The latest dailies received do not record the capture of Tracy. His latest exploit was to enter the house of one, Johnson, near Port Madison on the Sound, and after scaring the family into doing his bidding, proceeded to make himself quite at home for several hours. In the meantime thoroughly ransacked the house, gathering up a few dollars in money, some matches, provisions, etc., and appropriating the farmer's Sunday suit of clothes. After shaving himself and changing clothes, he tied and gagged the Johnson family, compelled John Anderson, the hired man, to lead the way to the shore where a boat was moored and in which they set sail for parts unknown.

The sheriffs were at various places along the Sound, resting and waiting for something to turn up. The dogs not being good at tracking boats, have gone home disgusted. Merrill has not been seen since Tracy says he killed him two weeks ago. If he did, it is the only good deed to his credit so far known.

Fed Nearly Half a Million Poor.

LONDON, July 5.—An official bulletin this morning says that the king is out of danger, is cheerful and feels much stronger. The King's monster dinner to the London poor was given today. Most of the dinner was given at the parks throughout the city. The destitute, as well as many of those whose wages are below the living standard, took advantage of the dinner. The number fed amounted to half a million. The dinner cost in in the neighborhood of 30,000 pounds.

The Prince and Princess of Wales visited the various dining centers.

At Bishop's Park, 14,000 people sat down. The dinner was typically English, consisting of steak and kidney pies, veal pies, ham, roast beef, potatoes, tarts, cheese, beer and lime juice. Even in the poorest quarters all showed some effort to dress for the occasion. The guests were amused by 2000 actors and actresses, who volunteered for the occasion.

In the Churches Sunday.

Sabbath School at the Presbyterian church, of which Mrs. Forsythe is superintendent, was well attended. A pleasing feature of this school is the regular attendance of its members, most of whom are children.

At the Christian church the attendance was larger than usual and an earnest interest was manifested. Oren Wagner is the efficent superintendent.

At the Methodist church, of which C. H. Zurcher is superintendent of the Sabbath School, the attendance was large as usual and a good degree of interest shown. After Sabbath School Rev. Walker preached a good sermon to about the usual congregation. In the evening Rev. Marvin preached one of his fine sermons, which is always a treat to those who hear him, after which the ordinance of the sacrament was observed.

This is Elder Marvin's last visit to this circuit before Conference, which convenes at Colfax in September. He expressed himself as well pleased with the religious work of this circuit and at the request of many of the members of the church, and others, will recommend that Mr. Walker be returned for another year.
