WORLD'S NEWS.

FROM FAR AND NEAR.

Clipped and Copied From Our Exchanges.

The freight depot at Pendleton was burned last Saturday.

A woman has been arrested in New York city for begging and it is claimed she is worth $50,000.

Reports from all parts of Washington county are coming in to the effect that the wheat yield this year will be 50 percent short of what was expected.

W. R. Barr, of Fairmont, claims to have solved the grasshopper question. He says that by burning sulphur about the yard one can easily get rid of them.

Hiram Cron, the only pensioner of the war with Great Britain in 1812, is reported to be fast passing away at the age of 103, at his home in Dunbrook, New York.

An ax trust is the latest. One has been organized in St. Louis with a capital stock of $25,000,000. The principal product of the company will be ax handles.

Reports of another eruption of Mount Pelee have been received. The eruption was followed by total darkness five miles away from the volcano, which lasted fully 20 minutes.

A movement is on foot in Baker City to organize a good roads club and co-operate with the movement to be instituted by James W. Abbott, of the United States Department of Agriculture, who will hold a good roads convention in Portland in October. All the mining men of this district are heartily in favor of such a movement and will support it.

Ex-Senator Pepper, of Kansas, has been in the background for several years, but is not letting his faculties rest. In his quiet Washington home he is writing a series of reviews of certain periods of American history, and for some time has had in mind writing a work dealing with the question of labor and capital. He has 30 large scrapbooks filled with pictorial and other caricatures of himself and his lies.

President Mellen, of the Northern Pacific, says the plans of his company for entering Portland involve the bridging of the Columbia and Willamette rivers and the boring of a tunnel through the backbone of the peninsula, all of which will cost about $3,000,000. Northern Pacific trains will come down the Columbia over the O. R. & N. track from Wallula and from Portland to Puget Sound, Union Pacific trains will pass over Northern Pacific tracks.

Near Sterling, Colo., a large corps of Government surveyors are making a preliminary survey for a ditch to carry water from the Platte river to the Great Pawnee reservoir, which it is believed that the Government will build. The ditch will be 75 miles long, six feet wide at the bottom and 75 feet wide at the top. The cost of construction is estimated at $1,000,000.

Work will soon begin on a large condensed milk factory to be erected at Forest Grove. The president of the company has gone East to purchase the machinery necessary to operate it and it is expected to have the plant running before the snow flies.

At Texarkana, Texas, a man named Perkins, an alleged divine healer and prophet, who has been posing as an angel of Christ, who, he declared, would appear in a few days, was taken out of town last night by Whitecaps flogged, his hair cut short and then given 10 minutes to leave town. A notice left on Perkins' door read: "Same fate to sympathizers."

H. H. McNeil, that good natured Paradise merchant, was in Astoria Wednesday on his way home from Lewiston, where he had been to lay in another supply for his store.—Astoria Sentinel.

Mr. C. L. Beeson, from the Grouse country, was here Monday and made final proof on his homestead. Victor Buchler and Riley C. Bott accompanied Mr. Beeson and acted as his witnesses.—Astoria Sentinel.
