FRUITA.

The Blevans Bros. and their wives returned home a few days ago from Joseph where they had been to interview Notary Rumble.

Thos. Rich, the Grouse Creek Sawmill man, has just finished delivering 5000 feet of flooring for the bridge at Innaba postoffice. The Elk Mountain sawmill man said he would deliver the lumber for $18 per M, but the Grouse Creek sawmill man raked in the checks at $17.50 per M.

If one is cross and morose he should visit the home just now of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Rich, of Fruita, and see the busy workers gathering, sorting, peeling, canning and boxing fruit. To watch them fifteen minutes as they go and as they come, like bees go and come, will cure. I guarantee, any case of ennui.

The Enterprise dog and the Chicago cow have made homerous for the destruction of property. Each used the same means—kicked over a lighted lamp—and each accomplished the same end—started a conflagration that destroyed everything it touched. I consider honors equal.

W. G. Beith will by agreement take control of a flock of 15 or 16 hundred ewes on or about the first of next month. He has purchased 50 tons of hay and a splendid winter range of M. Thompson, of near Fruita, for which he is to pay $300.

Orval Wilson, a Prairie Creek raised young man, writes me under a late date, that Mrs. Lou Ella Tartar, nee Perkins, died recently near Richland. Mrs. Tartar left a babe two weeks old. Orval further says: Sister Annie is here—Eagle Valley—on a visit from her Fresno home. She is the mother of seven children. Brother Phil is clerking for the O. R. & N. at Huntington. Sister Viola is the three months bride of a Mr. Tartar, of Coronopia. Brother Joe is working in a tinshop in Richland making honey cans. I expect to be in Wallowa Valley with a wagon load of honey for sale this fall pure and unadulterated.

WALLOWA:

Mrs. Theo. Williams and two sons who have been visiting in Grande Ronde valley for the last two weeks, returned on Fridays stage.

Rev. Trever Orton, who was the pastor of this charge two years ago arrived in the city last Sunday. He has just returned from Conference and is working for the India Mission to be erected in India for the benefit of missionaries who become sick. Rev. Orton was not given any particular work on account of poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Brandin and daughter, Jeanette, of Promise, were in our city Tuesday on official business.

W. I. Dishman, president of the G. M. & S. Co., of Elgin, passed through town Sunday on his way home.

Drs. Gregg and Temple returned from their trip to Portland last Friday.

J. P. Morelock, our cigar drummer returned from a trip to up valley points last Friday.

Nellie Ghormley, who has been visiting her parents in Powatka for some time, was a passenger on Saturday's stage for Elgin where she is a teacher in the public school that commenced at that place Monday.

Gertrude McCullough returned Friday from Summerville where she had been visiting with a sister for the last two weeks.

J. L. Smith has his new store almost ready for business. Most of his goods are expected to arrive this week and will be placed in position for trade within the next few days.

The different stores are receiving their new invoices of fall goods. A good trade is anticipated this fall and the merchants are preparing for it by getting on an extra large supply of winter goods.

The latest transfer in real estate is the sale by the McDaniel McDonald Real Estate Co., of the Wade Hulse place near Lostine to Evan Allen, of the Middle Valley. Consideration $7150.

Mrs. W. I. Dishman, of Elgin, was in Wallowa Tuesday night on her return from a visit to her mother who has been quite sick. Mrs. Day is better at present writing.

Arthur Post made a hurried trip to Powatka last week.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Lige Hulse, of Lostine, died last Wednesday morning after a brief illness. We did not learn the particulars.

Died, in this city last Thursday evening, the little 2-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown. The little one was laid to rest in the Wallowa cemetery Friday.
