Wallowa County.

FRUITA.

Smokey, smokey, where is the fire.

Thos. Rich and Jos. Lay started for the valley the 16th.

We have a new mail carrier, Miss Martin, who is in the saddle.

One of Johnnie Hamilton's little girls was severely burned and scalded on the right hand and side the morning of the 15th. She was standing near a camp stove and fainted, falling on the stove and upsetting the coffee which was boiling.

Thos. Morgan and S. C. Himelwright started out with beef cattle the first of the week.

Messrs. Neal, Finley, Thompson, Page and Musty are all on the range looking after cattle.

Mrs. Simms and daughter, of Prairie Creek accompanied by Mrs.
Boner of Hurricane Creek are visiting Mrs. John Guyan.

Mrs. Hodgkin and Johnnie Himelwright while riding a horse who objected to carrying two, threw them off and bruised both of them but not seriously.

Mrs. Balter is going out to Joseph to see about placing her daughter in school for the winter.

Outside Sheep.

Complaints are being made that sheep from Umatilla are being brought in large numbers to the ranges of Union county. These bands devastate the hills and take from the people of the county the pasture that they feel by right belongs to them.
Some steps should be taken to stop this practice in the future. If outside sheep are to take the grass of the Union county hills, they should at least pay taxes in Union county.— Union Republican.

The Forest Fires.

A property loss which will reach into the millions and lives given up to the number of two score or more is a brief summary of the ravages of the forest fires about Portland and in Southern Washington. And even this death list may run much higher for a hundred or more are missing in the Lewis river district alone. Mills, villages, farm houses and valuable timber lands have been burned within the past week and only the prompt relief sent out from Portland and surrounding towns has saved many from starvation.

A Big Sheep Drive.

Arthur Miller, a sheep owner of Wallowa county, arrived in LaGrande today after a trip of three weeks in bringing a band of 5,000 sheep overland from the upper part of Wallowa county to North Powder, where it was intended to make a rail shipment to eastern markets. Since his arrival Mr. Miller has had offers to purchase the entire band, and he may accept the same. The band was driven through from Wallowa to Cornucopia and thence along the head of Big Creek to the Powder river valley.—

A Letter.

Winlock Wheeler Co., Oregon.
Sept. 15th, 1902.

Dear Chieftain: Since I left Wallowa county I have not had the pleasure of reading the Chieftain nor have I heard from there since I left about the middle of August. I arrived here together with my son, Wm. C. Akin and also Eddy Akin and family. We had a very dusty trip and we found all our friends in good health and prospering. Crops of all kinds are very fair. Fruit plenty and of excellent quality. The settlers here are greatly in need of mills, sawmills especially.
A sawmill immediately in this vicinity would be a paying investment. The timber here is plenty and of excellent quality and thousands of water. The settlers here are as a whole able to pay cash for what they need. Will the Chieftain please send us a millman.
There was a serious accident at a threshing machine a few days ago near here. It seems the table gave way and the tender fell head foremost at the mouth of the machine running his left arm into the cylinder which tore off his hand above the wrist and broke the bones still above. Two doctors were called and amputated his arm but the man kept sinking and died forty-eight hours later. Wm. C.
Akin was feeding and kept him from being drawn into the machine. This young man has left an aged mother who will mourn his loss greatly. His name was Edurd Mote, an excellent young man.

Stock of all kinds are looking fine in this country. But the very dry hot weather is telling seriously on stock now as the feed is virtually gone.
The growing of alfalfa and stocking the fields with hogs is paying very well as they are quoted at a very fair price.

C. AKIN.

Oil in Alaska.

Seattle, Sept. 18.—A special to the Times from Valdez, Alaska, says:
The first flow of petroleum in Alaska was struck at Cotella, on September 1 at a depth of 300 feet. It had not been expected to be so shallow. The gusher took everything away and rose 150 feet before being finally capped.
The oil is of good quality, being valued at $4 a barrel at the well. It is near water transportation, which will cost $3 a ton. Ten miles have been located.

Cotella is near Kayak, 30 miles south of Cooper. A large body of coal was discovered near the same place recently.

Notice to Sheepmen.
