WORLD'S NEWS.

FROM FAR AND NEAR

Clipped and Copied From Our Exchanges.

The Oregon State Blind School opened this week with 30 students. There are two more to come in, so that the total attendance will be the same as last year.

Secretary of State Dunbar has procured designs for metal badges which he will have made for the state house employes during the session of the legislature.

Hood River is to have a Fruit Fair, beginning Oct. 8 and lasting four days. It will be one of the best ever held in the state, probably the best purely local affair.

The average attendance at the Chemawa Indian school for the past year was 556, 64 more than the preceding year, while the enrollment was 680, as against 560 in 1901.

Rev. F. A. Powell, formerly of the Eugene Divinity School, who has recently been pastor of the First Christian church of San Francisco, has been converted to Unitarianism and will officiate in a Salem pulpit of that denomination soon.

A law authorizing school districts to combine and conduct one school for several districts, is a measure that will be proposed for enactment by the next legislature. A similar law is in force in some of the eastern states and is found entirely satisfactory.

An exhibit for the Lewis and Clark fair that will attract much attention will be that of the model of the first ship that went up the Columbia River. This ship was commanded by Capt. Gray. E. M. Simpson of San Francisco is owner of the model, but has kindly offered to loan it to the fair company.

It is Oregon's turn, now, to be the center of a movement that shall develop latent resources and multiply the strength of the commonwealth. Other states have had their period of development under the spur of heavy immigration and the coming of Eastern people of all classes. Oregon will during the next few years, forge ahead rapidly.

Mrs. Waggoner, who found Merrill's body and eloped with the murderer's brother, has been in Chehalis. She was discovered heartbroken at Seattle recently and is sorry for the deed and cries for her children. It is said that those who were interesting themselves in obtaining the reward of $1500 from Oregon for her for the finding of Merrill's body have abandoned the project.

The richest strike in the history of the Eastern Oregon gold fields was made in the Cracker Oregon mine Friday. The mine is on a parallel ledge with the North Pole and C. & E. mines. Hon. J. H. Robbins, who witnessed the assay of several average specimens of ore taken from this new find at Sumpter says that they average $9000 in gold to the ton. Picked samples go as high as $10,000 to the ton.

So bitter is the feeling against the proposed 5000 square mile forest reserve from the Blue and Strawberry mountains in Eastern Oregon, among the citizens of Grant county that petitions were sent last week to every precinct in the county with appeals to the voters to sign the remonstrances wholesale. The sentiment against the reserve as at present constituted is so intense that over four fifths of the settlers are expected to affix their signatures. The protests will then be forwarded to the Department of the Interior.

R. Rice, who is interested in a large amount of marsh land near Wallowa lake, has just returned from Seattle, and expects to make arrangements to plant rock oysters, clams and mussels, start a shell fish industry in that section of our state. He will be assisted by E. L. Roup who desires to introduce the Australian Mussel that has proven a great success in the anti-podis, and who will superintend the propagation of the same.—LaGrande Chronicle.

Mrs. A. C. Forrester and children, who reside in the Joseph Creek country, came in on the Anatone stage Thursday evening, to make their home at this place until next spring. Mr. Forrester, who has been sick for several weeks, and who is still sick and very weak, is expected to be brought down the river in a boat today. He does not believe there is any merit in medicine, hence refuses it; and for the past twenty-three days he has taken on but little or no nourishment and is so weak at the present time that he hardly has the strength to swallow.—Astoria Sentinel.

Fall and Winter Goods

which is by far the largest stock and best quality of goods we have ever received. We solicit your patronage and trust our goods and prices will merit a liberal portion of your purchase. With us it is not a question how low we can make prices but how good quality we can furnish for the money and how well we can serve the public in furnishing their requirements. We do not claim to be philanthropists or that we want to sell goods below cost but we will meet any competition in our locality. We are now busy opening and marking our new stock and haven't the time to go in detail in advertising any specials but will say that our lines are quite complete in the different departments.
