Unique Offering of Quality and Quantity

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church will have exclusive charge of the E. M. & M. Co.'s store

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30

On this day the

BIG STORE

will be in charge of the Ladies. The Society will receive a liberal percentage of all CASH SALES.

Such a happy combination should cause a liberal loosing of purse strings.

The markets of the East and West have contributed to the largest and best stock that ever loaded the shelves of the store. Choice purchasings of Staple and Seasonable lines of Fall Goods await your inspection.

DRY GOODS AND SHOE LINES are particularly full. The goods and prices will appeal strongly to your buying judgment. Suits and blankets in complete selections, suggest comfort for approaching weather. We want the Ladies to sell at least a dozen heating stoves on this day. Air tights in beautiful design at prices that make the coal strike look like the Fourth of July.

The sales on this day should be the record for the year. The Ladies will have full and personal charge of the Store—your wants will be anticipated by them promptly and efficiently.

You have the opportunity to make your purchases from a stock unexcelled in the county and at the same time help a society that is doing a noble work.

We are now handling more Merchandise than ever before in the history of our store. We shall endeavor to make prices as low as is consistent with good values and have added to our list of clerks so that we will be ready to serve you more promptly than ever. Trusting we shall receive your patronage we are respectfully yours

WORLD'S NEWS.

FROM FAR AND NEAR.

Clipped and Copied From Our Exchanges.

Last Saturday while Scott Thomas and son, of North Yamhill, were deer hunting in the mountaint west of Sheridan, the young man accidently shot his father with a 30-30 rifle. They were standing on a log when a deer jumped up, and the young man in throwing a shell into the gun accidentally discharged it. Mr. Thomas is in a serious condition.

The building and plant of the Western Packing company at Linnton, near Portland, the only horse cannery in the country, burned to the ground Sunday night. The cannery was a heavy exporter of canned horse meat to France.

Latest reports from the Cree Indian agency in Montana are that the prevalence of smallpox has been minimized by quarantine. The conditions were nothing like as sensational as at first reported.

From his headquarters at Manila, General Davis has issued a sweeping order calling attention of army officers to the fact that methods of duty and manners of dress are becoming negligent in the islands.

The government of Chili has announced that its efforts to secure closer relations with the other South American powers are not intended to interfere in any way with the North American government's wishes or actions.

During the course of an address at Wichita, Kan., last evening Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, who was held for ransom by brigands, announced she would not be able to repay the money spent to secure her release.

At a dinner given by Lady Cook in London last evening it is claimed the fact came out that the Boer commanders were none too friendly in their feeling toward one another. Several of the former Boer generals were present at the function.

At St. Louis yesterday Colonel Ed. Butler was refused permission by the court to go on the bonds of several of the city officials against whom charges of boodling have been brought. Butler, who is a millionaire, is also under the Courts charged with bribery.

London advices which have reached New York tell of a successful experiment with a life-saving device. In an aluminum globe two men were thrown overboard from a steamer off Havre, France, and were later picked up alive and well, after having been at the mercy of the waves for a number of hours.

The Chicago Masons have decided to pay the sum of $22,850 due as taxes. For the embezzlement of the amount, Captain E. Williams is now on trail.

Only $500 in taxes is delinquent on the Benton County tax poll. It is believed that the Benton County Sheriff has the smallest delinquent list in the state.

After a meeting held at Canton, Ohio, Saturday, it was announced by the trustees of the McKinley Memorial Association that no monument would be erected until an additional $100,000 had been raised.

Real tragedy on the mimic stage was the result at Cold Spring Harbor, N. Y., Saturday evening, when a member of a traveling medicine company, in attempting to shoot an apple from the head of an attendant, killed his man. Charles Meisit, the shooter, has been held for manslaughter.

As the result of a collision near Hope, Idaho, yesterday, three Northern Pacific locomitives were wrecked. Fireman T. P. Sayers was killed and Engineer A. L. Bussey dangerously hurt. Both men were residents of Butte, Mont. A light engine came in contact with a double header freight.

Upon arriving at Liverpool, England, yesterday, after a visit to the United States for the purpose of studying naval construction, Admiral Lord Charles Beresford gave out in an interview that the two English-speaking nations united could whip all the rest of the world. He admits America leads in engineering and construction.

Lost a car of Horses.

T. C. Weatherly, of Joseph, lost a carload of horses which were put in the railroad stock yards Saturday night. Mr. Weatherly had loaded two cars of horses at Elgin for shipment east. He unloaded the animals here and the gate to one of the pens was open, and the horses got away. The night was very dark and the fact that the gate was open was not discovered. On Sunday the entire band of frightened horses showed up at N. J. Harres' farm at Lower Cove, and have been recovered although the affair has caused Mr. Weatherly a considerable extra trouble and annoyance.—LaGrande Chronicle.

A SHORT TERM.

OF CIRCUIT COURT.

Convened Monday And Adjourned Tuesday.

The regular biennial term of Circuit Court convened in this city Monday morning with Judge R. Eakin on the bench. The attorneys present were D. W. Sheahan, Smith & Hodgin, DePue & Cook, Burleigh & Burleigh, of Enterprise, O. M. Corliss, of Wallowa, H. G. Lake, of Joseph, C. H. Finn and T. S. Ivanhoe, of LaGrande, J. S. Sweek, of Portland, and District Attorney Sam White. The following is the record of the proceedings, LAW.

D. B. Hendricks vs. J. T. Wisdom, tried and dismissed.

S. R. Lapham vs. Allen Sharp Shearing Machine Co., settled.

J. W. Cherry vs. Col. Graves, settled.

Rock Island Plow Co. vs. E. A. Bishop, continued.

Wallowa Merc. Co. vs. L. D. Bisconer, settled.

O. F. and P. E. Mays vs. John Graham, settled.

R. M. Fisk et al vs. J. A. Wood, et al continued.

H. B. Royce vs. State of Oregon and L. Green, Justice, no service.

EQUITY.

Joe Hayes vs. Carrie Valewinkler, sale confirmed.

J. M. Mitchell vs. J. T. D. Lacert, sale confirmed.

Mr. Heaverne et al vs. J. M. Mitchell, et al, trial before referee.

Idaho Explo. & Copper Co. vs. E. W. Eaves et al, continued.

F. P. Tinsley vs. J. C. McAlister, et al. Taken under advisement.

J. H. Haley vs. J. L. Cavincss et al continued.

Wallowa Co. vs. A. Wade, decree for plaintiff.

Jane A. Barton vs. F. Wilts, default and decree to quiet title.

A. Levy vs. John A. Connett, continued.

The Grand Jury was in session only a short time as there was no business to come before it.

The petit jury was dismissed Tuesday morning without a jury trial, which is certainly a record breaker for Wallowa County.
