Mrs. Patten, Sec.

United States deputy marshal, Roberts, Wm. M. Yanacek, traveling adjuster of the Dugal Cress Publishing Company and J. W. Kerns went down to Enterprise Wednesday evening behind Boles D.'s Missouri team.

A telephone message was received here Tuesday night stating that Mr. Wm. Kerns is no better and cannot recover and that his people are bringing him home. His son left the next morning to meet them.

Miss Rosa Martin and her sister, Miss Arney are now "remaining" at the Marshes' sanatorium sanatorium.

Barker Montgomery is now residing in the Wouiston residence. Chas. McDonald, of Wallowa, was on our streets the forepart of the week.

Mr. Francis Ghornerly, of Powatka, who was here standing a written on Tuesday, received his credentials on the following morning and went on his way rejoicing. He says a teacher is wanted in his community.

Supr. Conley and wife and Mrs. Geo. Gaily who left here some time ago for the northern part of the county are still at large but are expected home any time.

Our presiding elder preached here on Monday evening and made a good impression on his flock. This is a new field for him.

The Woodmen of the World are to have a big blowout here in the Bank hall on Thursday night. By the screaming we hear at nightfall, we imagine they are going to have some singing.

Every one come and see the world go around by love Friday night at Roup's hall.

J. A. Rumble and some other fellow went out to beard old Bruin in his haunts but returned without the necessary credentials.

Miss Agnes Listee was quite sick Saturday and Sunday but is much better now.

Quite a number of our boys are out on the swine drive to LaGrande.

Peter O'Sullivan started one day this week with two car load of hogs for the east.

Ed. Rumble, the busy Lostine merchant was in our rustling town on Sunday. His wife accompanied him.

F. D. McCully left on Sunday for outside points.

Miss Lillie Beach, the efficient teacher at Liberty was visiting friends here on Saturday. She came in a "buggy."

Chas. Austin, of Paradise, was visiting here on Saturday.

Tax Payers Tax Notice.

That all taxes now remaining unpaid as provided by law, no tax can be received by the sheriff until after the return of the delinquent tax roll is made and a warrant for their collection issued by the county clerk. J. C. SHACKELFORD, Sheriff.

Horse Economy

Means that to get the best work the horse must be properly harnessed or saddled and it is all the more satisfactory if the harness or saddle is first class.

Good Material

and reliable workmanship are combined in the goods I sell. We always see that the straps are perfect, easy and safe buckles and strong qualities in every point.
