

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

NIELSON—Edwin John Nielson, 81, a lifelong Oregonian and self-appointed “Mayor of Minerva,” died Jan. 2, at his home off the north fork of the Siuslaw River.

Nielson was born Dec. 13, 1933, in Forest Grove to Agnes (Herb) and James Nielson. He grew up at family homes in old Detroit (now covered by water by the Detroit Dam complex) and Stayton, graduating from Stayton Union High School in 1952. A talented athlete, he for several years held the record for the mile run at Stayton High School.

He spent most of his adult life working as a logger in the Oregon Cascades and Coast Range. Nielson greatly enjoyed the outdoors and hunting, fishing and camping. He excelled at making his own trout lures and flies.

He was well-known up the north fork for his daily trips to feed “his fish” with his dog Hercules in his black Jaguar auto.

Nielson married the former Marilyn Minden in 1953; they divorced in 1974. In 1978, he married Aletha Vibbert, a union that lasted until his death.

He was preceded in death by his parents; siblings Don Nielson and Mary Lou (Nielson) Geil; and daughter Beth (Nielson) Pfefferkuch.

Nielson is survived by his wife, Aletha; his children: Scott Nielson of Vancouver, Wash., Jeff Nielson of Corvallis, Barb (Nielson) Duggins of Bend, Tessa (Nielson) Mabe of Toledo, Jack Utterback of LaPine, Glen Utterback of Florence, and Pam St. Clair of Eugene; 16 grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren.

Burns Funeral Home of Florence is in charge of arrangements.

LAWRENCE—C. Robert (Bob) Lawrence, 84, formerly of Florence, passed away Sept. 30, 2014, at his daughter’s home in Virginia.

Bob was born in Sharon, Ohio, on Dec. 8, 1931, to Nellie L. Archibald. He served in the U.S. Navy during the Korean War.

He met and married Ardis Beyerley while stationed at a Navy base in Alameda, Calif. They were married for 52 years when she died March 22, 2007.

After retiring, Bob and Ardis spent four to five years RVing until they settled in Florence. He became interested in the local Elks Lodge and went on to become Exalted Ruler from 2005-06. In 2007, he moved to the Arizona desert until his illness made it necessary to go back to Virginia to be with family.

Marc D. Lawrence, Bob and Ardis’ only son, died Aug. 14, 1994.

Bob is survived by his daughter, Sandra Hamill; three granddaughters: Maggie R. Kennel, Lindsay R. Ruland and Roxanne Richards, M.D.; five great-grandchildren: Grace E. Kennel, Thomas J. Kennel, Phillip R. Kennel, Jackson Ruland and Connor Ruland.

He is missed and remembered fondly by his Oregon family.

A celebration of life will be held at the Florence Elks Lodge on Sunday, Jan. 18, at 1 p.m.
