

FEBRUARY 2015 GALLERY SHOW

Animal Lovers' Art Featured in February Gallery Show

The FEC Gallery Committee is presenting For the Love of Animals in Gallery One during the month of February. This exhibit will benefit the Florence Area Humane Society (FAHS).

Photography, paintings, 3-D art, pastels, scratch board, pen and ink – a variety of mediums will be on display. The art community of Florence is happy to have this opportunity to help support the local animal shelter.

There will be a kick-off reception on January 31 in the gallery between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Pets available for adoption will be present for get-acquainted visits. Attendees can bring their pets to be photographed. There will be refreshments and a raffle drawing for a personalized portrait of the winner's pet painted by local artist Ron Hildebrand. All proceeds from the pet photo donations as well as the raffle will go to the Florence Area Humane Society. People attending are asked to bring dog or cat food to donate to the shelter.

Celebrate your love of animals by attending this unique show during regular gallery hours in February.
