

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

GESIK—Donna S. Gesik, 67, of Florence, passed away Jan. 26, 2015.

Donna Gesik

For many years she owned and operated the Coast Trophy Shop on Highway 101.

At her request, private cremational rites were held through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

NIELSON—Aletha (Vibbert) Nielson, 80, a lifelong Oregonian and descendant of a pioneer family, died Jan. 26, 2015, at her home on the Siuslaw River near Florence after a long illness.

Aletha Nielson

Aletha was born in remote Ashwood in Central Oregon, one of four children of Allan and Ethel Vibbert.

The family later moved to Salem, where she attended Salem Academy.

She married Jack Utterback in 1952, and the couple had three children: Jack, Glenn and Chloe. They later divorced.

She married Ed Nielson in 1975.

A successful businesswoman, Aletha once owned several businesses in Newport. She prepared taxes for many people over the years, earning a reputation of finding money when other tax preparers couldn't.

She loved to spend time with her family and friends, and was devoted to her rescued dog, Cali, an Italian greyhound.

Aletha was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Ed Nielson; her brother Roy Vibbert; and her sister Henrietta Vibbert.

She is survived by Jack of LaPine; Glenn of Florence; Chloe of Eugene; Christopher of Salem; sister-in-law Bernita of Salem; her brother Jim Vibbert of Salem; 18 grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren.

A celebration of life potluck will be held in Salem on Sunday, Feb. 8 at 1 p.m., in the community hall at Sun Dial Mobile Home Park at 2310 Lancaster Drive SE.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

FRANKLIN—Max William Franklin passed away Jan. 28, 2015, surrounded by his loved ones.

Max Franklin

He was born to Ace R. and Eva E. (Hunt) Franklin on March 31, 1938, in Coquille, Ore. He was raised in Bandon, Ore., with his two brothers, Rodney and Richard.

The Franklin Boys were well known in town.

He joined the Army in 1955, where he was trained as a paratrooper. He also was an U.S. Army marksman and toured with the marksmen in competitions.

He served in Germany, driving the commander's tank and guarding the east/west border.

After leaving the Army he came home to Oregon and settled.

He drove tanker trucks for Shell Oil Co., and became their driving instructor.

Later he commercial fished for a few years after Shell released its trucks.

He was a chip truck driver for Foglio Trucking in Florence, and later retired from Miles Oil Co., as its tanker driver.

After retirement, he and his wife, Jan, traveled the country, sightseeing and visiting family.

Winters were spent in Arizona where he loved walking and riding quads in the desert.

Survivors include his wife, Jan of Florence; sons Michael (Geneie) of Sweet Home, Ore., Robert (Christy) of Everett, Wash., Bradley (Olivia) of Gulf Breeze, Fla., and Jamie (Brandi) of Macon, Ga.; daughter Deanna (Stephen) of Glenbrook; 10 grandchildren: Max, Michelle, Shawn, Anna, Jordan, Lauren Elizabeth, Alex, Aidan, Kate and Brinley; and six great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brothers Rodney and Richard; and a nephew, Richard Jr.

A graveside service will be held Friday, Feb. 6, at 1 p.m., at the Mount Vernon Cemetery in Springfield, Ore.

There will be a gathering at Community Baptist Church in Florence, from 4 to 6 p.m.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home is in charge of all arrangements.

LIGHT—Corbie Darrel Light, 55, of Greenlief, Ore., passed away Jan. 22, 2015, of an apparent heart attack while doing what he loved — working outdoors.

Corbie Light

Corbie was born in Salem, Ore., on Dec. 3, 1959, to Zella and Bernard Light.

He was an avid fisherman, worked at Fircrest Farms and was a painter.

He was always there to "Corbie rig" a stranded motorist or friend.

Corbie was preceded in death by his parents, Zella and Bernard Light; a brother, Kevin; and a sister, Sybil.

He is survived by twin sisters, Valeri and Vickie Light; and several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service to celebrate Corbie's life will be held this summer.

RINGO—Marjorie Ringo, 65, of Florence, passed away Jan. 30, 2015.

At her request, private cremational rites were held through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

RILEY—John H. Riley Sr., 82, of Florence, passed away Jan. 31, 2015.

At his request, private cremational rites were held through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

PERKINS—Margaret M. Perkins, 77, of Florence, passed away Jan. 31, 2015.

Private cremational rites were held through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

BIRTH

Correction

In the front-page article, "Around the Track in 70 Years," in the Jan. 28, 2015, issue of the Siuslaw News, Jim Archer's quote on page

7A should have said he runs "on the horse trails near C and M Stables."

Siuslaw News regrets the error.

Jury duty scam makes rounds

Multiple Florence residents have reported being contacted by individuals via telephone who report that they or family members have failed to report for jury duty and need to pay hundreds of dollars in fines, according to the Florence Police Department.

These payments are facilitated by the victim buying prepaid credit or gift cards, and providing redemption information to the suspect(s) over the phone.

Similar incidents have been reported in the past in Lane County.

Florence Police reminds citizens that this is not a legitimate activity and county and state agencies do not utilize this method to collect official payments.

Law enforcement may occasionally contact community members by phone during the course of an investigation but will not make phone calls to community members for missed jury duty or to alert someone that they have a warrant out for their arrest.

Citizens are encouraged to hang up the phone if they suspect a scam and report scams to the local law enforcement agency.

Calls asking for payment through untraceable methods, such as Green Dot cards or other cash cards, are probably a scam.

Calls that use scare tactics, or pressure you to send money quickly, are also likely scams.

Florence Police may be contacted through its non-emergency line at 541-997-3515.
