

THE RECORD

OBITUARY

DONAGHEY—Margie Francis Estes Donaghey, 85, formerly of Florence, passed away peacefully Feb. 11, 2015, after complications from a long battle with Parkinson's Disease.

Margie Donaghey

Margie was born on Aug. 21, 1929, in Chandler, Okla. Margie was the oldest of seven children. She lived much of her adult life in small towns along the Southern Pacific RR Line that runs between Roseville and Truckee, Calif., but resided longest in Roseville, Calif.

She moved to California shortly after her marriage to the love of her life, Roy Donaghey (1923-1985).

Margie also lived in Florence for about 15 years, where she worked with her son and daughter-in-law helping them manage Northwest T-shirt Company.

Family remembers Margie being an adventurous, brave, kind and loving woman who was a great artist and craftsperson, and who always had a soft twinkle in her eye, a big smile and arms ready to hug anybody in need.

Margie is survived by her three children: Lois Donaghey (John) of Santa Rosa, Calif.; Roy E. Donaghey (Carolyn) of Florence, Ore.; and Jois Brock (Rick, deceased) of Reno, Nev.; her sisters Harriett Haines, Ellen Welton and Ethel South; her brother Frank Estes; grandchildren: Cole, Lyssa, Jayme, Chad, and Darien; nine great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandson.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Roy; and two brothers: Sam Estes and Corkie Estes.

Margie's family was her pride and joy, and they will love her eternally.

Services for Margie will be held Feb. 23, at Lambert Funeral Home in Roseville, Calif.

ENGAGEMENT

Hier — Burns

Olivia Hier and Kenton Burns have announced their engagement to be married Nov. 14, 2015, at the Vue in Corvallis, Ore.

Olivia is the daughter of Jim and Renette Hier of Tigard, Ore.

Kenton is the son of Alan and Karen Burns of Florence.

The couple met at their alma mater, Oregon State University.

The future bride received her degree in merchandising management and is employed by Siuslaw Bank in Florence.

Her fiancé graduated with a degree in forest management, and is currently employed with the U.S. Forest Service in Waldport.

Camouflage underwear a revealing disguise

Police arrest Florence men for Eagle Point robbery

Two suspects in a robbery at an Eagle Point AM/PM on Sept. 19 apparently wore underwear over their faces to hide their identities.

Gage Miller

Timothy Raybould

The camouflage-patterned boxer-briefs did not prevent the Oregon State Police (OSP) from receiving a tip that led to two arrests.

An OSP trooper received an anonymous tip that one of two suspects involved in the robbery was in the Florence area.

The trooper was able to determine the name and location of one of the suspects, identified as Gage S. Miller, 21, of Florence, who was already in custody on unrelated charges in the Florence Police Department Jail.

During the interview of the suspect, additional information was developed that led investigators to determine the identity and location of the second suspect.

The second suspect, identified as Timothy D. Raybould, 22, also of Florence, was located at a Florence-area residence on Feb. 6.

Both Raybould and Miller were arrested and transported to the Jackson County Jail pending charges for robbery in the first and second degrees.

OSP was assisted in the investigation by the Eagle Point Police Department, Jackson County District Attorney's Office and the Florence Police Department.

KB Gallery offers thrilling evening of live radio theater

On Friday, Feb. 20 at 6:30 p.m., and Saturday, Feb. 21, at 12:30 p.m., the Kenneth B Gallery will host an evening of thrills as the Florence Radio Theater presents a live reading of three episodes from the classic radio series "Suspense!"

In "Sorry, Wrong Number," a woman overhears a plan for murder over the telephone and desperately attempts to stop it from coming to fruition.

In Ray Bradbury's "Zero Hour," a house wife uncovers a sinister plot of an alien invasion led by her young daughter.

In "The Game," two young boys take a night of drinking too far with a game of Russian roulette.

Join local actors, including San Francisco Jack, Jim Wellington, Elizabeth Rose, Grant Harmon and Meg Spencer, as they bring these terrifying stories to life.

Admission is free.

KB Gallery is at 1458 First St. in Old Town Florence. For more information, call 541-999-5875 or visit www.KennethBGallery.com.

Ask Dr. Rincker, the Podiatrist

Q: What is a Neuroma?

A: A painful condition that affects the ball of your foot as if you are standing on a pebble. This can cause sharp, burning pain in the ball of your foot & into your toes.
