OBITUARIES

AMBROSIO—Sandra Rae Ambrosio, 70, of Florence, passed away in her home surrounded by family on Feb. 12, 2015.

She was born in Fifield, Wis., on Dec. 12, 1944, to Raymond Schreiner and Edna Bertha Schreiner.

In the early 1950s, they moved to Denver, where she went to school and met her future husband, Victor "Dusty" Ambrosio, when she was 11 years old.

They married in 1962 and had two daughters, Vicki Renee and Denice Rae Ambrosio.

After moving to Oregon in 1966, Sandy went to work for a jewelry store and that started her lifelong love for gemstones and handmade jewelry, beading and crafts of all kinds.

While living in Portland, Sandy was a passionate volunteer during the Rose Festival festivities, making floats of flowers, seeds and other organic items.

With her daughters always at her side, Sandy paved the way for them to live creative lives that always think outside the box.

In 1971, Sandy helped open the first Oregon Liquor Store in a shopping Mall (Mall 205) with some good friends.

She then helped open an Open Air Hot-tubbing business with another family friend before moving with her family to Florence in 1984.

They purchased Darlings Resort and Marina on Siltcoos Lake and for 20 years they had great fun with the locals, made life-long friends, and met interesting people from all over the world.

After selling the resort, Sandy was enjoying retirement until a stroke in 2008 left her left side paralyzed. For the last six years, Sandy worked harder than ever to overcome her handicap.

She was avid in water aerobics for her recovery. She was a great inspiration to others who had suffered the same debilitating condition by encouraging them to get into the water and let their body feel free.

In August 2014, she had a total knee replacement surgery on her "good" knee. It was a success and it was great to see her walk without pain.

But in October, an undiagnosed gallstone blocked her pancreas. This acute pancreatitis is what ended her life just when she was getting ready to flourish.

She is survived by her sisters Gloria McGill of Modesto, Calif., and Debra Guyette of Reedsport; her grandchildren: Nathan Ambrosio Sherman, Gates Robert Witten, Jeffrey Daniel Anderson and Harmony Ann Anderson, all of Florence; and her border collie, Zoe, who was a good companion and looked after her during her stroke recovery.

Siblings preceding her death were her oldest sister, Norma Acker, and beloved brother Robert Schreiner.

A service honoring her life will be held at the Florence Elks Lodge on Saturday, March 7, from 1 to 4 p.m.

Anyone wishing to pay their respects is welcome to attend. Burns's Riverside Chapel

Florence Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

MORELAND—Donna Jean Trenton Moreland, 58, of Bluefield, Va., passed away Sunday, Feb. 22, 2015.

Born in Bluefield, W.V., she was the daughter of Nancy Omar Trenton of Bluefield, Va., and the late Donald Paul Trenton.

She was a 1974 graduate of Graham High School and received a double bachelor's degree from Emory and Henry College.

She was the owner and operator of DonnArt Signs in Jonesborough, Tenn., from 1986 to 2004, with her husband.

She was an artist in every sense of the word. She enjoyed writing music and singing, participating in theatrics in school and church, painting pictures and personal portraits and creating original pieces of art.

She was a volunteer at the Wade Center, helping with the care of children after school hours.

She was also an active member of First United Methodist Church, Bluefield, Va., the Seekers Sunday School Class and the handbell choir.

In addition to her father, Paul, and her husband, David, she was also preceded in death by her grandparents: Clara Pile Omar and Evans E. Omar, and Edna H. Trenton and Walter Trenton; and a son-in-law, Gary Colley.

She will be fondly and affectionately remembered by her mother, Nancy; her children: Bonnie New and husband, David, of Johnson City, Tenn., Taylor Moreland of Johnson City, Tenn., and Anna Colley of Knoxville, Tenn.; her brother, Robert E Trenton, and his wife, Terry, of Bluefield, W.V.; grandchildren: Christopher and Megan Colley, and Abigail Wells; and other extended family members and friends.

A service to celebrate Donna's life will be held today, Feb. 28, at 2 p.m., at First United Methodist Church, Bluefield, Va., officiated by Dr. Brad Scott and Dr. Don Scott.

The family will receive friends at the church on Saturday, from 1 p.m., until the hour of the service.

The family requests that donations be made in her memory to The Wade Center, 1400 Highland Ave., Bluefield, W.V., 24701.

Dudley Memorial is serving the Moreland family.

KLEIN—Alice Klein, 80, of Florence, passed away Feb. 24, 2015. Arrangements are being held through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

BOUCHET—Della Bouchet, 69, of Florence, passed away Feb. 26, 2015.

Arrangements are held through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

Strikes for the cure

Cancer survivor John Vansickle goes for another strike during last Saturday's annual Bowl for the Cure event, sponsored by Holiday Bowl and the Central Oregon Coast Bowl Association. Proceeds went to support cancer research.

Donate green fabric for Green Fair

Siuslaw News is asking for help with the upcoming Green Fair.

In the spirit of recycling, Siuslaw News is seeking donated fabric material from the community that can be used to make capes for youth attending the Florence Green Fair.

Anyone who has material that is at least a yard in length and has some type of green color can donate it by dropping it off at Siuslaw News, 148 Maple St. in Florence.

For more information, call the Siuslaw News office at 541-997-3441.

Any donation is appreciated.
