GOULD—Richard (Dick) Gould, 81, of Eugene and formerly of Swisshome, passed away Feb. 20, 2015, from complications of dementia.

Richard was born in Montague, Calif., on Nov. 30, 1933, to Willis (Bud) and Elma Gould.

He graduated from Mapleton High School in 1951 and enlisted in the Navy on April 23, 1952, serving four years of service.

On March 18, 1956, he married Eva E. Robertson in Chula Vista, Calif., and returned to Deadwood, where he began his career as a paymaster at Erskine Lumber Co. and later Davidson Industries until his retirement.

Richard was involved in the Masonic Lodge, was a super donor for Lane Blood Center, where he donated for 37 years. He also loved cooking, reading, crossword and jigsaw puzzles, walking, gardening, outdoor activities and following his grandchildren's sporting and school events.

WAGNER—Patricia "Trisha" D. Wagner, 77, of Florence, went home to be with the Lord on March 3, 2015.

Patricia Wagner

Trisha was born May 13, 1937, in Los Angeles, Calif., and lived in Orange County, Calif., and Sacramento, Calif. before moving to Florence on May 5, 2001.

In 1951, she won a trip to "Forest Home Christian Camp" by memorizing Bible verses. That is where and when she dedicated her life to Jesus, eventually becoming a born-again Christian.

She was married at age 17 and moved to Honolulu, Hawaii, where she completed high school at McKinley High School, living in Hawaii for two years.

The most precious moments of her life were the births of her son and daughter, and then her grandchildren.

Trisha was blessed with multiple careers, each one being a fun challenge. She was an account representative for her son's internet advertising business; sold manufactured homes and furniture; was a wedding director and reverend for marriages in Lake Tahoe; was owner of Wedding Wishes shop; did computer data entry for Koinonia Foster Homes in Loomis, Calif.; was bookkeeper for Stanford Home for Children in Sacramento, Calif.; sold Cal-Farm Insurance; and was a children's karate instructor in Downey, Calif.

She also was a member of Franklin Graham's Samaritans Purse Ministry and participated in the Operation Christmas Child "Shoe Box" Project.

Trisha once wrote that her most important achievement "has been getting to know our Lord Jesus, loving Him and walking with Him. It has been such a pleasure and honor to have a dear family that shares my faith."

Trisha won trophies performing karate katas and won a car from Mary Kay Cosmetics Co.

Her favorite activities included spending time with her much loved family and dear friends. She also loved to write poems, bake sweets, paint with oils and watercolors, floral arranging and organizing — anything she could possibly get her hands on.

Trisha was preceded in death by her parents Leo Ellis Wagner and Dorothy Alberta Bolander.

She is survived by her son, Jeffrey L. Dimmick of Florence; her daughter, Brandi L. Quinn of Ventura, Calif.; four grandchildren: April Dimmick and Christopher Dimmick of Florence and Zachary Rogenmoser and Dylan Rogenmoser of Ventura, Calif.; and her cousin, Evelyn Yantis of Temecula, Calif.

A graveside funeral service will be held Friday,

March 13, at 2 p.m. at Pleasant Hill Cemetery, 36299 Highway 58 in Pleasant Hill.

All who loved her are invited to attend.

Donations in her name can be made to: Samaritan's Purse, P.O. Box 3000, Boone, N.C. 28607 or at www.SamaritansPurse.org.

MOULTON—Katy L. Moulton, 91, of Florence, passed away March 9, 2015.

Arrangements are being handled by Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.
