Evangelical Church hosts spaghetti fundraiser

Enjoy a great meal deal and help send youth to camp.

Florence Evangelical Church is raising money to send children and youth to camp this summer. The church is raising money through several fundraisers, and a grant from Western Lane Community Foundation.

The first fundraiser is a spaghetti dinner at the church Saturday, March 14, from 4 to 7 p.m.

The dinner includes spaghetti, tossed salad, bread, dessert. Cost is $8 per person or $18 for a family of three or more.

Children and youth going to camp will be waiters and waitresses at the dinner.

The church is located at 1318 Rhododendron Drive, on the corner of Rhododendron and Laurel streets.

FAHS benefits from artistic endeavor at FEC

The FEC Gallery reception. Committee, a sub-committee of the Friends of Florence Events Center, recently held a "For the Love of Animals" exhibit and all-day reception at the FEC to benefit the Florence Area Humane Society (FAHS).

People donated dog and cat food.

reception.

There was a raffle for a chance to win an original oil painting of the winner's pet by local artist Ron Hildenbrand.

As a result of this fundraiser, a check for $635 was presented to FAHS.

Bettie Egerton won the portrait raffle. Alicia Spooner and Terry Barrett each won $25 gift certificates to Toni's Canine Castle.
