Florence Democrats make special library donation

Members of the Florence Area Democratic Club presented the Siuslaw Public Library with four special items detailing the struggle for voting rights in America.

Chosen in large part for their educational merit, the donated items were the subject of a special letter written by retired educator and club member Harold Titus to local teachers and principals to ensure students are made aware of the library's newest acquisitions.

Two of the items are books for younger readers. Both picture book "Elizabeth Leads the Way" by Tanya Lee Stone and chapter book "Marching with Aunt Susan" by Claire Rudolf Murphy detail the struggles of women suffragists, and their young supporters, as they fight to secure the vote for women.

The third book, "Turning 15 on the Road to Freedom" by Lynda Blackmon Lowery, is aimed at young adult readers and tells the true story of Lowery — the youngest member of the 1965 voting rights march from Selma to Montgomery, Ala.

The last item donated, a documentary film, depicts the suffragist movement in photograph and film. "One Woman, One Vote" is an episode from the acclaimed American Experience series produced for PBS and will no doubt prove of interest to viewers of all ages.

This donation of materials to the Siuslaw Public Library was inspired by a recent presentation to the FADC by Bob Peters, one of the original participants in the famed march from Selma to Montgomery in 1965 that led to the passage of the Voting Rights Act later that year.

The FADC membership wanted to share the legacy of voting rights in America with the area's youngest citizens.

The presentation of items was made at the Feb. 26 Friends of the Siuslaw Library meeting.

Prime Steakhouse becomes Sunset Grille

Three Rivers Casino and Resort changes menu and schedule

Three Rivers Casino and Resort has announced it will be making significant changes to its restaurant offerings in Florence.

The Prime Rib Steakhouse will re-open as Sunset Grille on Monday, March 23.

The main advantage to customers with the change will be an improved schedule offering, as Sunset Grille will be open daily with full breakfast, lunch and dinner menus seven days a week.

Currently, Prime is open Thursday, Friday and Saturday for dinner only.

Three Rivers assures its customers that it will continue the same wine offerings as Prime — which include some of the best on the Oregon Coast — at Sunset Grille.

Prime had been recognized several times by Wine Spectator Magazine, and the tradition of fine wine offerings will carry on.

Ask Dr. Paul

Dear Dr. Paul:

How do I know if my tires are properly inflated?

Sign me, Tired of Wondering

The right PSI (pounds per square inch) varies from car to car. PSI information can be found on a sticker in the glove compartment or inside the driver's door. Check tire pressure when car is cold. Never let air out of tires that are hot. When tires heat up, pressure increases, so if you let air out and the car cools, the pressure will be wrong.
