In the girls division, Siuslaw nabbed four individual wins, beginning with Destinie Tatum in the 400-meter race (1:06.40). Tatum also landed second in the high jump (4-08), just ahead of teammate Stevie Miller in fourth place (4-06). Carissa Oliver won the discus (97-07), placed second in the shot put (32-09) and was fourth in the javelin at 79-09. Teammate Hannahleah Jakobsen got Siuslaw's highest mark of the day in the javelin with a throw of 104-08 for second place. On the track, Sierra Potter won the 800-meter race

(2:32.52), with Mikaela Siegel winning the 100-meter hurdles (16.35) and Kaylee Graham winning the 300-meter hurdles (53.63). Siegel also placed third in the triple jump (32-05). Abby Watkins leaped 15-07 in the long jump for third place. Kennedy Pendergrass also had a third-place finish with her time of 2:37.19 in the 800 meters. Fishing from 1B is slow to fair. River conditions are low and clear. Anglers should focus on the deeper holding water. The river is open to harvest of wild winter steelhead through March 31. Anglers are advised to read the new regulations as there are harvest restrictions and new deadlines in effect. The deadline for steelhead fishing is at the confluence with Prairie Creek which enters the Salmon River west of the Van Duzer rest area at the same point as where Sulpher Creek enters the Salmon River. SILETZ RIVER: Steelhead fishing is slow. River conditions are low and clear. Bank fishing in the upper gorge area or floating the lower reaches will produce the best results until the next good rain event. Typical steelhead tactics apply such as side drifting, bobber and jig/bait, or casting spoons or spinners. WILSON RIVER: Steelhead Winter steelhead fishing should be slow as the river is low and very clear. Adjust your gear to these conditions by using lighter lines and smaller presentations. Fish will hold where there is cover; look for depth, choppy water, or large wood or boulders. YAQUINA RIVER: Steelhead The winter steelhead fishery is slow in the Big Elk. River conditions are low and clear. The fishery is typically very slow for the rest of the season.

Anglers are advised to watch for private property. Typical steelhead fishing tactics apply but the Big Elk is bed rock dominated and does have a lot of snags. COOS COUNTY LAKES/PONDS: Trout Trout will be stocked this week in Bradley Lake, Saunders Lake, Powers Pond, and Johnson Mill Pond. This is the first trout stocking of the year. There are several lakes like Tenmile, Eel, and Butterfield with holdover rainbow trout from last year's stocking. COOS RIVER BASIN: Dungeness crab, bay clams, steelhead, rockfish Steelhead rivers in the Coos Basin are very low and clear. Anglers should concentrate fishing deeper water using light lines and smaller lures/baits. There is bank access on the West Fork Millicoma at the Millicoma Interpretive Center and on the East Fork Millicoma at Nesika Park. Access to the South Fork Coos River is through Weyerhaeuser property and anglers must have a permit from Weyerhaeuser. In the Coos Basin, one additional fin-clipped steelhead may be retained per day for a total aggregate of three adult fish harvested daily. Fishing for lingcod and rockfish inside lower Coos Bay around the jetties has been good. Lingcod have been biting on larger jigs or on herring drifted under a bobber. The marine fish daily bag limit (which includes fishing in estuaries) is seven fish and a separate daily limit for lingcod (two). Anglers can keep only three blue rockfish as part of their daily limit and there will be no harvest of China, quillback or copper rockfish. UMPQUA RIVER, SOUTH: Steelhead The peak numbers of fish normally show up until late March. Fish have been caught in the Canyonville area and hatchery fish have been reported. The hatchery program for winter steelhead is centered in the South Umpqua, which offers the best chance for catching an adipose-fin clipped steelhead for harvest. Most hatchery fish are caught from Canyonville downstream. All wild fish must be released unharmed. Plunking should be good at places such as Lawson Bar, Myrtle Creek and behind Seven Feathers. TENMILE BASIN: Steelhead, largemouth bass, yellow perch Steelhead fishing in Tenmile and Eel creeks over the past week has been slow. Anglers are picking up a few fish plunking or back-bouncing crankbaits from a boat. In the Tenmile Basin, one additional fin-clipped steelhead may be retained per day for a total aggregate of three adult fish harvested daily. Bass anglers have been catching a few largemouth bass in Tenmile Lakes.
