Dive into volunteerism at aquarium

NEWPORT – Ask any and an abundance of animals. Northwest diver, and they will Oregon coast are cold, dark conditions requires a drysuit, dedication and perhaps even a bit of obsessive zeal. Many SCUBA divers instead choose to flock to tropical destinations or book shore dives at places like aquariums, where calm conditions and the opportunity to view wildlife are guaranteed. At the Oregon Coast Aquarium, approximately 150 volunteer divers travel from as far as Vancouver, Wash., to splash in the exhibits. There, they find crystal clear waters
