

Other outstanding volunteers include Genevieve Meltzer (assistant director and hair and make-up designer) have devoted countless hours to make the show the absolute best it can be for local children — on stage and in the audience.

“There are many unsung heroes who work behind the scenes on our productions,” said Heard. “Parent and community volunteers have helped with T-shirt sales, safety team organization, fundraising and prop collection, to name a few. We could not do what we do without these amazing people donating their time and energy.”

The following businesses and individuals have signed on as “Platinum Sponsors” for this year’s show: Chad Clement DDS/PC, Florence Elks, Bob Forsythe and Maire Testa, Heceta Self Storage, Leisure Excavating, The Levi Family, Nan Osbon, Rodet Construction and Waterfront Depot/Spice.

CROW also won grants for production costs from the Lane County Cultural Coalition and the Western Lane Community Foundation.

tion for the support of the wonderful Florence community,” Heard said.

“Once Upon A Mattress” hits the stage Friday, April 10, at 7 p.m., Saturday, April 11, at 2 and 7 p.m., and Sunday, April 12, at 2 p.m.

Tickets for “Once Upon A Mattress” can be obtained by calling the Florence Events Center at 541-997-1994 or online at www.eventcenter.org. Adults are $16 and youth under 12 are $8.

“Tickets are already selling rapidly,” Heard said. “So don’t delay, and bring your knights and ladies to this royally wonderful production.”
