

Cape Perpetua 'Walk with a Ranger' program April 6

YACHATS — Gain a greater appreciation for nature while making new friends one step at a time. The public is invited to a "Walk with a Ranger" hike at noon Monday, April 6, at the Cape Perpetua Visitor Center, three miles south of Yachats.

Retired chief park ranger and interpretive naturalist Michael Noack will lead a leisurely 30- to 60-minute hike along easy-to-moderate trails surrounding the visitor center.

Highlights include the Giant Spruce, Devil's Churn, Cook's Chasm, the Spouting Horn and Thor's Well. Noack will share information about the local flora and fauna, while participants will have the opportunity to get to know one another and make new hiking friends.

Interpretive naturalist Michal Noack will lead Monday's hike at Cape Perpetua.

Participants should dress for variable coastal weather, wear comfortable shoes, and bring water. Attending the hike is free, but a day-use fee or recreation pass is required within the Cape Perpetua Scenic Area.

For more information, call Visitor Center staff at 541-547-3289.

The Cape Perpetua Visitor Center is operated by the Siuslaw National Forest and is located three miles south of Yachats on Highway 101.

Winter hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Friday through Tuesday. The facility is typically closed Wednesdays and Thursdays.

For more information, call the Visitor Center at 541-547-3289 or visit www.fs.usda.gov/siuslaw.

Coast Guard Aux. offering boating classes

CHARLESTON — The U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary will conduct an 8-hour boating safety education course

Saturday, April 18, in Charleston.

The course covers the basics of boating safety, rules of the road and Oregon boating laws.

A test at the end of the course will qualify boaters for their Boater Education Card, under the Oregon Mandatory Boater Education Program.

The Boater Education Card is required for all motorboat operators of all ages for boats more than 10 horsepower.

Additional provisions apply to youths.

The cost of the course and materials is $15.

Pre-registration is required.

To register for the class, call 541-267-6152.
