

Dunes City, volunteers to 'Keep Coast Clean' April 26

DUNES CITY — Dunes City and co-sponsor Coast Jewelers are inviting the public to participate in the first Keep Our Coast Clean community cleanup event.

Volunteers will remove as much roadside litter as possible from 2 to 5 p.m. on Sunday, April 26.

Individuals, families, volunteer organizations and business teams can show their community spirit and pride by spring cleaning their communities.

In this first event, the goal is to remove litter from roadsides on Highway 101, from the Siuslaw River Bridge south to the Siltcoos River Bridge; Canary Road to the Ada Grange; Clear Lake Road from Canary Road to Highway 101; and if time permits, South Jetty Road.

Any property owners are invited to participate by cleaning their own road frontage of litter and Scotch Broom.

Long-term litter maintenance is being discussed and organized to support the annual event.

Wear bright clothing, bring gloves and safety vests.

Watch the Siuslaw News for more information.

For more information, call Linda Stevens at Dunes City Hall at 541-997-3338, or Liz at Coast Jewelers at 541-997-7676.
