

Artist reception for Warpinski at KB Gallery

Kenneth B Gallery announced a new exhibit by photographer Terri Warpinski from May 3 through June 7.

A reception for the artist will be Sunday, May 3, from 3 to 5 p.m.

Enjoy light hors d'oeuvres and a no-host bar, along with live guitar music by Michael Erbraut.

Warpinski's elegantly composed and visually expansive black and white photographs deliver timeless portrayals of weathered landscapes, showing nature's order amidst human existence.

Warpinski lives in Eugene, where she is a Professor of Art at the University of Oregon. In addition to coursework, she teaches workshops, most addressing the landscape as subject or alternative/archaic photographic processes.

She has led field courses to the area surrounding the Malheur National Wildlife Refuge for 20 years, initiated a program in the northern Italian village of Oira in 2005 and taught a multi-national field course centered on the Arava Desert of Israel during her Fulbright Fellowship in 2001.

Community holds prayer service for quake victims

On Sunday, May 3, at 8 a.m. and 10 a.m., at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, there will be two community prayer services for the victims of the earthquake that struck Nepal, India and China.

The services, weather allowing, will begin in the Labyrinth Garden behind the church at 2136 19th St., one block east of Spruce Street.

There are many organizations that are involved in the relief effort, but the church recommends the following agencies because of their Florence connections: Habitat for Humanity (the international program has a large presence in Nepal, and is already active in relief efforts there); Episcopal Relief and Development, an international aid program with an outstanding record of efficient international disaster relief;

or the International Red Cross.

Checks made out to these organizations should have a subscript: "Nepal Relief."

Donations will be symbolically walked to the center of the labyrinth, and then will be gathered into three large envelopes and mailed immediately to the three organizations, after the contributions have been prayed over by the assembled community.

Participants are invited to attend the regular Sunday services of St. Andrew's, which will start just after the community prayer services.

For more information on this community effort, call Bob DuBose or Rev. Georgia DuBose at 541-590-3371.

Bill Fleenor guest speaker for Universal Unitarians

On Sunday, May 3, from 10 to 11 a.m., the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship will be featuring Bill Fleenor as the guest speaker.

Fleenor will be sharing some of his life journey, beginning in the streets of San Francisco in the 60s to his current passion of teaching Hot Yoga.

Fleenor has served on the boards of many local clubs: Rotary, Kiwanis, Tale Spinners, Florence City Club, Siuslaw Outreach Services and the Siuslaw Watershed Council.

Most people will recognize

Fleenor from his service on the Board of Central Lincoln PUD.

He was a West Lane County Commissioner, and is recently finishing a four-year term as a member of the Board of Commissioners of the Port of Siuslaw.

All are welcome to attend each Sunday service.

The UU Fellowship is located at 87738 Highway 101, at Heceta Beach Road, and is wheelchair accessible.

...need a friend?

Meet HAPPY

Happy is a very smart dog, he learns new commands quickly and is very entertaining. He is an energetic, active guy who needs to be in a home where he would be the only animal. The temptation to play and chase is way too strong! He minds pretty well but would benefit living with a supportive person who will work to help him give his best.

If you would like to meet Happy or any of his friends, please visit us at:
