

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

JONES—James M. Jones, 71, of Florence, passed away April 26, 2015.

He was born Dec. 23, 1943, and married Marja Jones on July 8, 1967.

There are no services planned.

WALTON—Margaret Louise (Pogo) Walton, 83, of Sweet Home, died of natural causes May 4, 2015, in Albany.

Margaret was born in Camas, Wash., June 14, 1931 to Robert L. and Elizabeth (Taylor) Tucker, who preceded her in death.

Margaret has two sisters,

Dorothy Lamearoux and Patricia Fisher, both of Roseburg.

Growing up, Margaret lived in Camas, Wash., Denver, Colo., and Roseburg, where she graduated from Roseburg High School. While in High School, Margaret met Harold E. (Zeke) Walton.

She married him, her high school sweetheart, on Feb. 18, 1951.

Harold and Margaret had three children: Patricia J Walton of Sweet Home; Mark E Walton (Kathy) of Salem; and John M Walton of Sweet Home.

Besides her children and sisters, Margaret is survived by her grandchildren: Katie Mask (Shawn) of Scio, Ore.; Sean Walton (Anne) of Newburg; and Zachary E. Walton (Ellie) of Salt

Lake City, Utah.

She has four great-grandchildren: Ashley Mask of Scio; Kade Mask of Scio; Sidney Jessica Maria Walton of Kent, Wash.; and Emmett Walton of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Margaret also has many nieces and nephews.

Margaret was a stay-at-home mom and only worked to buy her parents or her children something special.

She was Christian and attended churches in Roseburg, Florence and La Pine.

Margaret and Zeke raised their children in Florence, and upon retirement moved to La Pine, Bend and Sweet Home.

As for her life, Margaret's number one focus was her children. She was active in Cub Scouts and was a Girl Scout Leader in Florence.

A major passion was traveling, especially with Zeke, her husband of 43 years.

The stories she would tell of their travels and experiences were often very humorous.

She was also a master seamstress, making clothes for many in Florence who, to this day, talk about her skill, craftsmanship and love of sewing.

Margaret loved to read, and later in life she like to read about the history and stories of the Northwest.

At her request, no service will be held and interment will be private.

Donations can be made to A.G.H.F. Samaritan Evergreen Hospice Center, 1046 Sixth Ave. SW, Albany, OR 97321.
