It was a day of personal bests and standout performances for the Vikings during last weekend's Far West District meet in Brookings, where the Lady Vikings outscored Marshfield by 24 points to claim the district crown — along with six individual titles.

Though the boys finished third in team scoring, they will be sending five athletes to compete in nine events this weekend at Hayward Field in Eugene for the 4A state meet.

The girls, meanwhile, will send 11 Vikings to compete in nine events.

On the track, sophomore Celie Mans took the title in both the 3,000 meters and 1,500 meters, with times of 11:04.49 and 4:59.21, respectively. She also ran a leg on the second-place 4x400-meter relay team with Kennedy Pendergrass, Kaylee Graham and Destinie Tatum.

In the throws, sophomore Carissa Oliver was also a two-time champion, taking home titles in the shot put (34-05) and discus (121-0).

Tatum, also a sophomore, won the 400 meters in 1:01.4.

Junior runner and leaper Mikaela Siegel will move on to the state meet in the long jump after finishing second at 16-01. Siegel also scored for the Viks with third place in the 300-meter hurdles (50.55), 100-meter hurdles (16.26) and triple jump (33-07).

Sailors land five spots at state meet

BY NED HICKSON
Siuslaw News

The Sailors set a dozen PRs including eight total lifetime records during last Friday's Mountain West League district meet.

For the boys, six athletes scored in double digits en route to four individual championship titles and three second-place finishes.

The girls team also had three athletes score in double digits, along with having four lifetime personal bests and an individual district title in the pole vault for junior Hannah Rodet (5-6).

In the boys division, senior Jacob Pruett led the team in individual scoring with 33 points. Pruett won the shot put with a PR mark of 41-02, and the javelin (147-11). He was also second in the discus (106-8), qualifying him for state in all three events this Friday at
