Local Toastmaster receives second CC Award

Jim Perry was recently honored by Toastmasters International and its local club, The Siuslaw Tale Spinners.

Perry, who is already a Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM), received his second Competent Communicator (CC) award.

To qualify for this award, Perry repeated the 10 basic communications projects by presenting a new set of speeches.

The basic manual is given to new members to help them develop confidence in their speaking skills, whether they are terrified of speaking in front of groups or just need a little help in polishing long forgotten skills in one-to-one conversations.

Toastmasters International is a nonprofit educational organization that teaches public speaking and leadership skills through a worldwide network of meeting locations.

The Siuslaw Tale Spinners Toastmasters club meets every second and fourth Wednesday, from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m., at the Siuslaw Valley Fire and Rescue station, on Highway 101 at 26th St.

For more information, contact club president Anne Machalek at 541-999-5357.

'True Story Tuesdays' continue at City Lights Cinemas

Master filmmaker Wim Wenders presents a portrait of photographer Sebastião Salgado with "The Salt of the Earth"; "Dior and I" goes behind the scenes of the great fashion house; The late Albert Maysles (Grey Gardens) leaves us with a beautiful portrait of a fashion icon in "Iris"; and Tony Hawk, among others, expands on the idea of physical freedom as a motivating factor in "The Search for Freedom."

Some of the documentaries, where possible, will have an encore screening the following weekend.

• June 2: "The Salt of the Earth." For the last 40 years, photographer Sebastião Salgado has been travelling through the continents, in the footsteps of an ever-changing humanity. His astonishing life-and-photographs are presented here.

• June 9: "Dior and I." A behind-the-scenes look at the creation of Raf Simons' first haute couture collection as its new artistic director.

• June 16: "Iris." This documentary about fashion icon and nonagenarian Iris Apfel is also the final film from legendary documentary filmmaker Albert Maysles.

• June 23: "The Search for Freedom." Gorgeous photography, both HD and archival, punctuate this high-energy exploration of adventurers, surfers, climbers and skateboarders, featuring Tony Hawk and many more.

"I think audiences are craving films beyond the mainstream — this series allows us to get these amazing films on-screen, even if only for a day or two," said Michael Falter, co-owner of City Lights Cinemas.

More information on all films can be found at www.citylightscinemas.com.
