Aquarius

Thursday at 9 p.m. on KGW,

A return to "The X-Files" is in his future, but first, David Duchovny will spend the summer on a collision course with an infamous figure — Charles Manson, played by Gethin Anthony ("Game of Thrones") — in this new suspense drama. The premiere episode, "Everybody's Been Burned," casts Duchovny as an L.A. homicide detective circa 1967. His search for an ex-flame's missing daughter involves an undercover peer (Grey Damon). Another episode follows.

The Whispers

Monday at 10:01 p.m. on KATU, KEZI

The next time a child claims he or she has an imaginary friend, it might pay to believe it — if this new suspense series is any indication. With Steven Spielberg among its executive producers, the show makes Washington, D.C.-area youngsters the prey of an unseen entity that may use them to impact the city's corridors of power. Lily Rabe plays an FBI agent skilled in dealing with children in the premiere, "X Marks the Spot."

Stitchers

Tuesday at 9:01 p.m. on FAM

This is not your grandma's procedural drama. ABC Family's first foray into that genre follows Kirsten Clark (Emma Ishta), a brilliant but emotionally remote young woman recruited by a covert government agency to solve crimes and mysteries by entering the minds of recently deceased individuals via a process known as "stitching." Salli Richardson-Whitfield ("Eureka"), Allison Scagliotti, Kyle Harris ("The Carrie Diaries") and Ritesh Rajan co-star as Kirsten's colleagues.
