

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

CAMP—Gordon Albert Camp, of Mapleton, passed away as the result of cancer May 13, 2015, at his daughter's home in Aloha, Ore., with his two children by his side.

Gordon Camp

Gordon was born to Walter and Anne Camp in Melbourne, Australia, on Nov. 14, 1945.

When he was nine months old, his family moved to Mapleton, where he grew up with his two younger sisters, Susan and Jeannie.

In 1964, he graduated from Mapleton High School and proceeded to OTI in Klamath Falls, Ore., to study electrical engineering — which he quickly found to be boring. So, he decided to get his pilot's license instead; no matter what the weather was like on the ground, it was always sunny above the clouds.

He joined the Army in 1967 and, after serving in Vietnam, returned home in January 1969. Using the GI Bill, he obtained his commercial pilot's license and later moved to Friday Harbor, Wash., where he flew for San Juan Airlines and met Marilyn Moss whom he married in 1980. They had two children, Alison and Brandon, and built a log home together before moving to Florence in 1987 to work for the city running the airport, Florence Aviation.

Gordon gave flight instruction lessons and scenic tours, as well as taking aerial photographs of the coast and developing the film himself. In the summer, he and his kids would spot fires for the Forest Service.

In 1990, Gordon took a job with Ameriflight and the family moved to Gresham, Ore., until he and his wife parted ways and he returned to Mapleton in 2006, officially retiring from flying.

From then on his goal, as well as his kids', was to restore his family's homestead house on Knowles Creek and begin organic farming. The house and the farm are still a work-in-progress because there were so many motorcycle adventures to be had, boats to build and sailing to be done. He also took up the disciplined art of Shuri-te Karate and earned his black belt.

In 2012, he re-married for a short time and moved to the Methow Valley in Northern Wash., but returned to his hometown once again a year later. His friends and family were so thrilled to have him back, having felt like Mapleton just wasn't the same without him.

On May 14 of last year, he welcomed his first grandchild, Alder Ray Huss, with whom he shared and taught as much as one can in only a year.

Gordon leaves behind his sisters, Susan McAllister of Mapleton and Jeannie Wallace of Springfield; and his children, Alison Huss of Portland and Brandon Camp of Gresham; and his faithful farm dog, Bella.

Gordon cherished his family, friends and the beauty of nature and believed in the richness of a full life. He is truly loved and missed by all who knew him.

A memorial will take place June 27, at 3 p.m., at Knowles Creek Farm, 12117 Highway 126 in Mapleton.

JONES—Florence Jones, 69, of Florence, passed away May 28, 2015.

She was born in Fayetteville, N.C., to Kathleen and Gerald Jones. She had a bachelor degree in nursing and continued her career as a

Florence Jones

Life-Flight nurse. Later on, she owned and operated a janitorial service and a florist in both Toledo and Newport.

But Florence found her true joy in helping others and spent her last years doing so as a massage therapist.

She was preceded in death by both of her parents, Kathleen and Gerald.

Florence is survived today by her husband of 10 years, Dwight Reindl; her daughters: Chalice Carkhuff of Florence, Carrie Teague of Toledo, Ore., and Sidney Jones of Florence; three step-children and 10 grandchildren, each of whom will live on in her memory.

She is loved by many and will be greatly missed by everyone who knew her.

Florence's viewing will be held June 5, between 1 and 5 p.m., at Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

A memorial will be held for people to share their stories in her honor June 7, from noon to 5 p.m., at her daughter's home, 2060 18th Street in Florence.

The family would like to thank everyone for their love and support throughout these difficult times.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home is in charge of all arrangements.

BOND—Sherry Glendean (Wilkinson) Bond, formerly of Florence

Sherry Bond

Mapleton, died May 27, 2015, in Boise, Idaho. Born in Bremerton Wash., to Walter and Zolena (Jo) Wilkinson in 1943, Sherry lived in Brownsville as a young girl, and then moved to Mapleton where she graduated from Mapleton High School in 1962.

After high school, Sherry met the love of her life, Gary F. Bond, of Florence, and they were married May 25, 1963, in Reno, Nev. They had two children: Gary Bond Jr., who currently resides in Boise, and Brenda Garber (spouse Richard) of Boise.

Sherry lived most of her adult life in Florence. During her work career, she was a bookkeeper, then a special education assistant for the Siuslaw School District, where she retired.

She enjoyed living in the Florence community and was involved in coordinating Special Olympics for many years. A long-time member of the Florence Church of the Nazarene, Sherry enjoyed spending time organizing the annual Christmas party. Sherry was a loving mother and grandmother who enjoyed attending the activities and sporting events of her children and grandchildren. She was a kind-hearted mother, grandmother and friend who always put others' needs above her own.

Sherry and Gary celebrated their 52nd wedding anniversary with family in Boise on Monday, May 25, shortly before her passing.

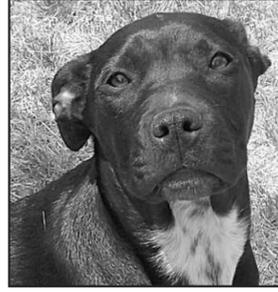

Sherry is survived by her husband, Gary; her brother, Dennis Wilkinson (spouse Phyllis) of Mapleton; and her two grandchildren: Jacob and Jordan Rainwater.

Sherry will be laid to rest at the Pacific Sunset Cemetery in Florence and a private memorial service for family and friends will be held in Bend.

We will miss her loving heart and generous spirit here on this earth, but know that we will see her again in heaven someday.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home is in charge of all arrangements.
