Shift happens

The next time you see David Ortiz or Ryan Howard lose what would have been a sure base hit had there not been a concentration of seven guys with gloves milling about in the spot the ball went, know that what you are seeing is nothing new.

Credit a guy they called "Old Shufflefoot" for the defensive shift, one time called "the Boudreau shift" after the creator, or "the Ted Williams shift," the guy it

All-school basketball tourney in North Bend

As a part of the 2015 North Bend July Jubilee, North Bend High School is hosting a coastal basketball tournament. Anyone who has attended, or is attending, any Coos County high school, as well as anyone from schools in Florence or Reedsport, is invited to participate.

When registering, participants will be matched up with other players who attended the same high school to compete against teams from other schools for Coos County bragging rights.

Players both young and old will give the fans something to cheer about.

The tournament will be held at North Bend High School on Friday, July 17, and Saturday, July 18.

The tournament will take place during the North Bend July Jubilee.

For more information,

email Travis Parker at travis2215@yahoo.com.

If a player's high school doesn't have enough players to field a team, organizers will find a team.

The Florence Softball Association kicked off the summer season this past Wednesday with a total of 90 games scheduled between now and Aug. 26, with teams playing two games each Wednesday and Thursday at 5:30 and 7 p.m. at Miller Park. The co-ed league will also host an invitational tournament later this summer, as well as a home run derby fundraiser and league championship play-off series in late August. Spectators are welcome at all games, which are family-friendly and alcohol free.
