Complications

Thursday at 9 p.m. on USA

The two-hour series premiere of this taut, character-driven thriller from Matt Nix ("Burn Notice") revolves around John Ellison (Jason O'Mara), an Atlanta ER doctor whose life starts to spin out of control after he impetuously saves a young boy from a drive-by shooting. As complications ensue, sympathetic nurse Gretchen Polk (Jessica Szohr) tries to shield John from their supervisor's (Lauren Stamile) suspicions. Beth Riesgraf ("Leverage") also stars.

Killjoys

Friday at 9 p.m. on SYFY

This new sci-fi adventure series follows a spirited trio of interplanetary bounty hunters chasing deadly warrants across the Quad, a distant system on the brink of war. The series premiere, "Bangarang," finds Dutch and John (Hannah John-Kamen, "The Hour," and Aaron Ashmore, "Warehouse 13") racing against time and a competing Killjoy in an attempt to clear their names and save the life of John's estranged brother, D'avin (Luke Macfarlane, "Brothers & Sisters").

True Detective

Sunday at 9 p.m. on HBO

The brooding, Emmy-winning mystery anthology series returns for a second season with a new cast and a new story line that finds detectives Ani Bezzerides and Ray Velcoro (Rachel McAdams, Colin Farrell) investigating a crime scene that was discovered by police officer and war veteran Paul Woodrugh (Taylor Kitsch). Career criminal and entrepreneur Frank Semyon (Vince Vaughn) also is involved in the case. Kelly Reilly also stars.
