Under the Dome

Thursday at 9 p.m. on KVAL

Though some Chester's Mill citizens remain sealed off from the rest of the world by the dome, others suddenly find themselves outside it as the Stephen King-inspired drama series begins its third round with the two-hour premiere "Move On/But I'm Not." Someone new and notable is among the residents: "CSI: Crime Scene Investigation" alum Marg Helgenberger. Continuing cast members include Mike Vogel and Rachelle Lefevre. Eriq La Salle ("ER") guest stars.

Humans

Sunday at 9 p.m. on AMC

Adapted from an award-winning Swedish TV series, this new British-U.S. sci-fi drama is set in suburban London of some "parallel present," where the latest hot trend in gadgets is the Synth, a highly developed, artificially intelligent servant or companion who eerily resembles its human counterpart. William Hurt stars as a widowed and aging scientist who can't bring himself to trade in Odi (Will Tudor), his own outdated Synth, for an upgraded new model. Katherine Parkinson and Rebecca Front also star.

Zoo

Tuesday at 9 p.m. on KVAL

The animal kingdom isn't too friendly — far from it, in fact — as this series adaptation of the best-seller by James Patterson and Michael Ledwidge premieres with "First Blood." When unprovoked attacks by lions, bears and other creatures begin around the world, an African safari guide (played by "Mad Men" alum James Wolk) investigates. A reporter and a veterinary pathologist (Kristen Connolly, Billy Burke) also launch a probe of the lethal phenomenon.
