Macy's 4th of July Fireworks Spectacular

Saturday at 8 p.m. on KMTR
One television hallmark of Independence Day is this showcase for the colorful displays above New York, and the event is broadcast again this year. Music acts and NBC personalities will be in on the festivities, with "Today's" Willie Geist and Tamron Hall serving as hosts — and Brad Paisley, Kelly Clarkson, Dierks Bentley, Meghan Trainor and Flo Rida slated to perform. The sights in the skies always are impressive here as America celebrates its birthday.

Shark Trek

Sunday at 8 p.m. on TDC
One of TV's most popular TV programming "stunts" returns with a total of 19 hours of primetime shark-themed shows, the most in its 28-year history. The Florida Department of Tourism probably won't like this season opener, which follows Massachusetts marine biologist Dr. Greg Skomal as he tags Great White Sharks off Cape Cod to study their swim patterns. He discovers the Florida coast is the new Great White hotspot in the Atlantic, but with no tasty seal population there to rival that of Massachusetts, Skomal struggles to figure out why.

Why? With Hannibal Buress

Wednesday at
10:30 p.m. on COM
Emmy-nominated writer and comic Hannibal Buress ("Broad City") incorporates stand-up, filmed segments, man-on-the-street interviews and conversations with in-studio guests as he provides his trademark perspective on each week's topic in this freewheeling new comedy series, which tapes before a live studio audience the same week the episode airs.
