

Yachats Arts Guild hosts summer show July 2-5

YACHATS — The Yachats Arts Guild will host its annual summer show July 2 through July 5 at The Commons, located at W. Fourth St. and Highway 101 in Yachats.

The guild welcomes new members Kathy Whitson, Eileen Lighthawk, Lee Haynes, Mark Adcock and Jane McCarthy.

These new guild members, as well as original participating artists Claire Good, Carol Summers and Barry Campbell, are just a few of the artists who will be featured in this summer's show.

The show will feature various mediums of artwork including watercolor, oil, acrylic, photography and wood-turned bowls and vases.

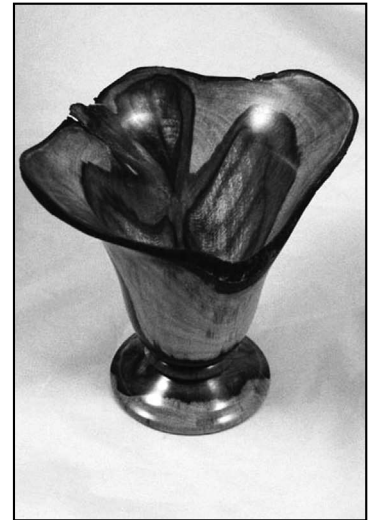

Original paintings as well as prints and note cards will be available for purchase.

The Yachats Arts Guild was formed to promote central coast artists and photographers and to call attention to the beauty of the Oregon coast.

Anyone interested in becoming a member or a subscriber member to support the Yachats Arts Guild can apply at the summer show.

A percentage of all sales go to the support and promotion of the Yachats Commons.

Show hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.,

Thursday through Saturday, and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Sunday.

Admission is free.

First Friday Art to celebrate Myrtlewood Factory on second Friday for July

REEDSPORT — The Myrtlewood Gallery has been in Reedsport for 30 years. Join everyone for the 30th Anniversary Celebration of the Myrtlewood Gallery doing business in Reedsport.

The Myrtlewood Gallery will also be hosting the Central Douglas Arts and Business Alliance's (CDABA) First Friday art event.

However, for July the event will be held on the second Friday, July 10, from 4 to 7 p.m.

The hours have been extended to be sure everyone has a chance to stop by and join in on the celebration.

The Myrtlewood Gallery is a gallery of fine woodworking, specializing in bringing its customers the warmth of wood from the Pacific Northwest.

The myrtlewood products and works of art are all professionally crafted by the local artists and woodworkers. The gallery represents the work of over 80 local artists and woodworkers.

The gallery also carries a large selection of raw wood for purchase. From wood slabs to carving stock and lumber; myrtlewood to maple burl and black walnut.

In addition to appreciating the work of the artists, everyone is invited to take part in the celebration with finger foods and music by the Worn Out Frets.

Paul Taylor and Bill York have been playing together for a few years and most perform on the south coast of Oregon. Paul plays electric guitar and Bill plays acoustic guitar and harmonica.

They play and sing a variety of music from Etta James to Willie Nelson.

The event will be hosted at The Myrtlewood Gallery, 1125 Highway 101 in Reedsport.
