ODFW: KEEP YOUR CAMPFIRE FROM BECOMING A WILDFIRE

one of the special times we all enjoy, but campfires are also a major cause of wildfires. May is Wildfire Awareness Month, and Keep Oregon Green, the Oregon Office of State Fire Marshal, and the Oregon Department of Forestry urge Oregonians to follow these basic outdoor safety tips:

• Know before you go -Call your local forestry or fire district to learn if there are any current campfire restrictions at your recreation destination. An interactive map of Oregon's Sitting around a campfire is fire restrictions is available at tioned overhead. www.keeporegongreen.org.

• Kick the campfire habit this summer - Portable camp stoves are a safer option to campfires at any time of year. Areas that prohibit campfires outside maintained campgrounds with established fire pits will often allow the use of camp stoves.

• Select the right spot — Where campfires are allowed, avoid building the fire near your tent, structures, vehicles, shrubs and trees, and be aware of low-hanging branches posi-

Clear the site down to mineral soil, at least five feet on all sides, and circle your campfire site with rocks. Store your unused firewood a good distance from the fire.

• Keep your campfire small A campfire is less likely to escape control if it is kept small. A large fire may cast hot embers long distances. Add firewood in small amounts as existing material is consumed.

• Attend your campfire at all times — A campfire left unattended for only a few minutes can grow into a costly, damaging wildfire. Staying with your campfire from start to finish until dead out is required by state law, to ensure that any escaped sparks or embers can be extinguished quickly.

• NEVER use gasoline or other accelerants (flammable or combustible liquids) to start or increase your campfire. Once the fire is ignited, wait until the match is cold and then discard it in the fire.

• Always have water and fire tools on site — Have a shovel and a bucket of water nearby to extinguish any escaped embers. When you are ready to leave, drown all embers with water, stir the coals, and drown again. Repeat until the fire is dead out. If it is too hot to touch, it is too hot to leave.

• Burn only wood — State regulations prohibit the open burning of any material that creates dense, toxic smoke or noxious odors.

• Escaped campfires are The Oregon costly Department of Forestry spent more than $3.3 million in 2014 to suppress unattended and escaped campfires. State law requires the proper clearing, building, attending and extinguishing of open fires any time of year.

A first-time citation carries a $110 fine. If your campfire spreads out of control, you are responsible for the cost of fire suppression. This can range from a few hundred to thousands of dollars.

During Wildfire Awareness Month visit the Keep Oregon Green website, www.keeporegongreen.org, for other wildfire prevention tips.

publishing their public notices in the newspaper.

Swimmers of all ages and abilities will find friendly knowledgeable instructors that make learning fun, with plenty of flexibility for parents' scheduels. More than four session dates offered. Sessions are two weeks long, Monday through Thursday, and run either in mornings or evenings.

For the intermediate or advanced swimmer, the Coastal Fitness "Fins Club" takes a swimmer to the next levels. Instructors offer training on different strokes and swimming technique.

This class is offered every Tuesday at 11 a.m.

"Our swim program has received great reviews from parents," said Deena Mitchell, Children's Program Director.

Coastal Fitness has been offering swim lessons to both children and adults since the opening of its pools four years "We have great instructors and our student-to-teacher ratio is very low," said Mitchell. Because of it, kids really excell.

Swim sessions continue through July.

Parents can register by stopping Coastal Fitness on Highway 101, or by calling 541-997-8086.
