OBITUARIES

MASON—Joan Marie Mason, 80, of Florence, passed away peacefully at her home with family by her side on Sunday, July 5, 2015, just before sunrise.

Joan Mason Joan was born Sept. 2, 1934, in Bard, Calif., to Faye Bivens and Zelma Ritchie.

She was blessed with a fun-loving spirit, valued hard work, good manners and excelled in everything she put her mind to.

Joan married Woody Bray in 1953, and together they raised nine children.

In 1971, Joan met Bill Mason while working as a hostess at a Sizzler restaurant. For Bill, it was love at first sight. They married on Oct. 2, 1973, and spent the next 42 years on a honeymoon.

Joan and Bill moved to Klamath Falls, Ore., in 1980 and enjoyed many years teaching together as firearm safety and shooting instructors.

Joan shared her love for life and spiritual beliefs with all who needed it.

She will forever be remembered as a humble woman who wanted to help others, and all who knew her would agree that she was "an original".

Family was her top priority. She never missed an opportunity to share in family celebrations or support them in their endeavors. She made phone calls to her loved ones on a regular basis just to let them know she loved them.

She was a light to her family, and now they are all shimmering of that light.

Joan was preceded in death by her mother, Faye O'Connell; a sister, Bonnie Ritchie, and a son, Woody Bray II.

She is survived by her husband, Bill Mason; a sister, Shirley Donatoni; her daughters: Bonnie, Lynne, Lori, Kathleen, Mary, Debra and Larissa; her sons: Patrick Bray, John Bray and Bobby Mason; and her 58 grandchildren.

A funeral service for Joan will be held Monday, July 13, at 1 p.m., at Burns' Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.

LANDWEHR—Gordon Landwehr, 89, of Florence, passed away July 6, 2015.

Gordon Landwehr Gordon and his family have lived on Silcoos Lake for approximately 160 years; his house was once the post office.

He used to ferry across the river for groceries and goods.

Gordon went to a one-room school in West Lake. He joined the Marines at the age of 18, serving in Okinawa where 3,000 were killed. While serving his country, he was wounded with 27 pieces of shrapnel in his legs and buttocks. He received the Purple Heart.

He was a timber faller, working in the woods for International Paper for years.

He had a ranch up the North Fork with a river running through it, where he raised beef and a garden, fished, smoked jerky, clammed and crabbed.

He also had a house and land at North Beach and was one of the camp houses in Booth; they towed across the lake on logs and pulled on the hill with a D8 cat.

Gordon was married to his first wife for more than 50 years. They owned Mode O' Day in town.

Gordon had one daughter, Jerlyn; two granddaughters and six great-grandchildren: Brook, Kay, Kaitlyn, Rylie, Emily, Logan, Dillon and Jordon.

After his wife's death, he married Adeline Webb and they were married nine years.

Graveside services will be held July 14, at 11 a.m., at Pacific Sunset Cemetery.

Burns' Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home is in charge of all arrangements.

GETCHELL—Orville Lewis Getchell, 87, of Florence, passed away July 6, 2015.

Orville was born July 19, 1927, in Eugene, Ore., to parents Ernest and Flora Getchell.

He served in Army Transport in the Aleutian Islands during World War II and then the U.S. Army occupation forces in Japan.

Orville worked as a service technician for Coca-Cola for 34 years.

He married Juanita Brink on June 30, 1951, and the couple recently celebrated 64 loving years of marriage.

Orville was an avid fly fisherman, hunter and talented woodworker.

He enjoyed many years of traveling to Alaska, where he built a cabin.

He is survived by his wife, Juanita Getchell, of Florence; brother Les and sister-in-law Lois Getchell, of Florence; his brother-in-law Mark Brink of La Pine, Ore.; his daughter, Susan, and son-in-law Charles Young, of Wasilla, Ark.; his son Gene and daughter-in-law Joyce Getchell of Florence; his grandson, Jason Gerola, of Kehei, Hawaii; his granddaughter, Aimee, and her husband, Louis Garibay, of Beeville, Texas; his granddaughter, Sarah, and her husband, Paulo Wolcuff, of Palmer, Ark.; his granddaughter Nikki, and her husband, Todd Miller, of Junction City, Ore.; his granddaughter, Andrea, and her husband, Jesse Kincade, of Eagle River, Ark.; and 12 great-grandchildren.

A funeral was held at Burns' Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home on Friday, July 10.
