

THE RECORD

OBITUARY

LYNCH—Edith Lynch, 97, of Florence, passed away peacefully on July 13, 2015.

Edith Lynch

She was born April 22, 1918, in Italy and migrated to the United States with her family through Ellis Island when she was 9 years old.

Edith spent many years in Trinidad and the Denver, Colo., area. She worked at various secretarial positions, and loved cooking and reading.

“Edie,” as friends knew her, had one daughter who passed away in 2001.

She and her husband, Edward Lynch, lived for a while in Virginia until his death. Edward is buried in the Arlington National Cemetery.

She was also preceded in death by her parents, Frank and Marie Aquino; her brother, Gabriel (a recipient of the Purple Heart; killed in action in 1945); and a sister, Helen.

Edith moved to Florence in 2007 to be near her sister and brother-in-law, Joann and Lloyd Carey.

They passed away in 2011 and 2013, respectively.

During the two years Edith had been a resident at Elderberry Square, she made many friends. She loved the wonderful caregivers there, and especially her hospice friends.

Burns' Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home is in charge of all arrangements.

Habitat

to construct new home

Groundbreaking set for Sunday near Munsel Lake

Volunteers for Habitat for Humanity will break ground on a new home near Munsel Lake on Sunday, July 19.

The building committee of volunteers, under the direction of construction manager Jerry Jensen, will work on home No. 27 throughout the summer.

Hailey Durgan recently signed the agreement to partner with Florence Habitat for Humanity in the construction and mortgage for a new home for herself and 5-year-old son, Gunner.

A groundbreaking ceremony will begin at 1 p.m. at 2930 Munsel Lake Road.

The public is invited to attend.
