The Florence Rotary Club spent Saturday, July 18, cleaning up "Caputo Island" at the intersection of highways 101 and 126 for the Power of Florence project.

The organization trimmed up overgrown bushes and trees as well as planting many flowers to make the main intersection look welcoming for all of the visitors to Florence.

The club thanked the following Rotarians and their spouses who helped out: Lis Farm, Jeff Farm, Connie Bradley, Kevin McMullen, Shasta McMullen, Gayle Waiss, Lisa Walter-

Sedlacek, David Sedlacek, Jim Hart, John Egar, Joe Doyle, Craig McMicken, Guy Veech, Bobby Jenson, Tom Payn, Ron Caputo and Bill McCardle.

Food, cookbooks to be featured at library

Tomorrow, July 23, the Friends of the Siuslaw Library will sponsor a summer food event as part of the Adult Summer Reading Program, "Escape the Ordinary."

The library's collection of cookbooks will be highlighted. An unusual finger-food recipe from each of nine cookbooks will be prepared by FOL members for the event attendees to taste.

The library has more than 1,000 cookbooks covering a gamut of traditional, regional, vegetarian and ethnic recipes, as well as most specialized diets. The cookbooks can be found in section 641 in the nonfiction section.

Prizes and demonstrations will take place during the afternoon tasting. The participants in the Adult Summer Reading Program, along with the public, are invited to attend this summer food event on Thursday, July 23, from 2 to 4 p.m., in the library's Bromley Room.
