Lemonade stand gives to SOS

Keeton Sayre, 6, decided to raise funds for Siuslaw Outreach Services at the Power of Florence by selling lemonade. The very warm day contributed to a $316 in donations for SOS. His cousin, Kaylee Graham, brought the money to SOS. "That is an incredible amount, but from someone that young it is even more special," said SOS executive director David Wiegan. "We are so thankful he thought of us.

Become a food-pantry volunteer

Oregon State University Lane County Extension and Florence Food Share have teamed up in order to provide nutrition education to the food pantry's clients.

Volunteers are trained by through OSU Extension Lane County's Nutrition Education Program.

The Nutrition Education Program (NEP) at OSU Extension Lane County is a research-based program that aims to empower those receiving emergency food improve the nutritional quality of their diets.

This is accomplished by offering healthy and inexpensive food samples, budget-stretching tips and nutrition education.

Volunteers are integral to this program. Volunteer involvements include:

1. Pick up a prepared bag of food ingredients to make our "recipe of the month." This is chosen off of the Food Hero website at www.foodhero.org.
2. Ingredients are used to make a recipe of the month item in the home and then brought to the assigned food pantry located in Lane County.
3. Along with providing these quick, healthy and inex-

'Paint the Town Purple' for Relay

The week leading up to Relay For Life of Florence will feature a decorating competition to see which local business can "purple" their location the best to raise awareness for the American Cancer Society and Relay For Life.

The competition is Aug. 3 through 7, with judging and awards being given on Friday, Aug. 7.

Relay For Life of Florence is Saturday, Aug. 8, from noon to midnight, at Miller Park.

The Relay Committee is hoping to "paint the town purple" in anticipation of the event.

Siuslaw Public Library seeks new board member

The Siuslaw Public Library District has a vacancy on its board of directors due to the resignation of current board member Dave Forsberg.

Forsberg shared in his resignation letter that he "love(s) the library more than ever," but that personal and professional obligations necessitated the decision.

The remaining board members and current library director Meg Spencer all extend their thanks to Forsberg for his years of service to the library district and the community.

The board will interview applicants and appoint a replacement for the unexpired term of Forsberg at a regular meeting on Wednesday, Aug. 19.

The person who is selected by the board as a replacement will be eligible to run for election in May 2017 at the end of Forsberg's current term.

The library board is composed of five residents of the district who are elected to four-year terms.

In addition to residing in the Siuslaw Public Library District, members must be qualified electors.

The responsibilities of the board of directors include setting library policies, approving the annual budget and hiring and supervising the Library Director.

All board members serve without remuneration.

Meetings are held on a monthly basis with longer planning sessions scheduled as needed.

As the board embarks on a new strategic plan for the library district this year, board members will be expected to attend additional meetings and planning sessions as part of the process.

Individuals who would be interested in serving on the library board must submit a completed application and inventory form to Spencer by 4 p.m., Friday, Aug. 7.

Application packets are available in both locations of the Siuslaw Public Library and online at the library's website.

Visit the library at 1460 Ninth St. in Florence, the Mapleton branch at 88148 Riverview Avenue or online at www.siuslawlibrary.org.
