

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

WILHELMI—Muriel L. Wilhelmi, 90, of Florence, died at home July 27, 2015.

Muriel Wilhelmi

She had many talents, including as an artist. She was best known for her seascapes.

She and husband, Eugene "Jerry" Wilhelmi, enjoyed dancing into their late 80s.

Muriel is survived by her husband, their four children, grandkids and great-grandkids, and her brother, William Stahnke.

She always will be missed by her family and friends.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

BOYE—Mary Viola Boye, 90, of Lincoln City, formerly of Reedsport, passed peacefully Friday, July 24, 2015, at Regency Florence Rehabilitation Center, from natural causes.

She was born March 21, 1925, to Frankie L. and Elizabeth E. Boye, both deceased, at their then-homestead on Otter Slough (near Reedsport, Ore.).

Before retirement in the late 1990s, Mary had lived and worked for six to eight months each year at Redden Net Co. in Cordova, Alaska, for more than 30 years, hanging and mending nets for commercial fisherman.

She had learned this nearly-lost skill from her father at an early age and generously shared and taught several Cordova natives the art before retiring. It was arduous work and she put in many long and late hours, still finding time to drive cab, tend bar and clean rooms at the Cordova House Hotel and Bar.

She had become a very independent lady and was pleased, even proud, to have been called a "tough old bird" or broad!

In her "free time," she always kept her hands busy and just couldn't leave thread alone. She crocheted doilies, potholders, purses, fine tablecloths and bedspreads, and well over 200 afghans, most of which she happily gave away.

Mary was also a long-time member of the Eagles Lodge in Reedsport.

During her 70s and 80s, Mary enjoyed traveling and took several cruises, visited Europe with relatives, and at another time did a round-the-world trip by herself!

She especially enjoyed New Zealand and Australia, and had most recently, prior to her fall, enjoyed reminiscing and looking at those photos.

Earlier in her life, Mary had pulled lumber on the "green chain" in Gardiner, and worked several places in Reedsport, which included picking crab at Point Adams Packing Co., selling tickets and refreshments at the old movie theater, operating the shirt-ironing mangle at the old dry cleaners and was bookkeeper for several years at Unigas.

In addition to her parents, Mary was preceded in death by five brothers: Albert, Wilson, Howard, Clarence and Everett Boye; as well as her two former husbands, David R. Morgan and A. LeRoy Chenoweth, both of Reedsport.

Mary is survived by her daughters: Bee Boye (a.k.a. Bernice Morgan) of Lincoln City, Nancy A. Lee (nee Nancy Morgan) of Reedsport; three grandsons, two great-granddaughters and many dear and cherished close friends and relatives.

Mary had moved to Lincoln City in December 2008 to live with her daughter Bee until July 2014, when she moved to Lakeview Senior Living, also in Lincoln City, until she fell and broke a hip July 2.

She had hip replacement surgery, and then was transferred to Florence, on July 7, for rehab.

At her request, there will be no formal services.

A celebration of life is planned for Saturday, Aug. 15, from 1 to 3 p.m., at the Reedsport Eagles Lodge, 510 Greenwood Ave.

The family requests no flowers or donations, but welcomes oral or written memories to share at the celebration.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home is in charge of all arrangements.
