Dentists to give free help ‘From the Heart’

From The Heart Dentistry, an annual event established by the Korando Dental Group to serve marginalized populations in Florence with free dental care, will be held Thursday, Aug. 13. For 30 years, From The Heart Dentistry has changed lives through free dental care for those who need it most but can’t afford it. This year’s event takes place from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at The Korando Dental Clinic, 1705 22nd St. in Florence.

“During From The Heart Dentistry, patients can have a thorough cleaning, extraction, or certain other repairs done at no cost to the patient,” said Dr. Charles W. Korando. “These patients are typically uninsured, un- or under-employed, and/or homeless men, women and children in the community. “Each is deserving of respect and dignity, and needs just a little help that will have big results in their lives,” added Korando. “We’ve had patients who received corrective work who went on to regain their confidence and get a job.”

“Each is deserving of respect and dignity, and needs just a little help that will have big results in their lives,” added Korando. “We’ve had patients who received corrective work who went on to regain their confidence and get a job.”

“We run into all kinds of horrific conditions during From The Heart Dentistry,” he explained. “Sometimes we have to make referrals to other medical professionals to resolve the additional disorders, and sometimes we have to send people directly to the ER.”

Each year since it opened in 1984, The Korando Dental Group has made possible — at no cost to the patient — improved health and better smiles for about 50 different patients each year.

Korando also says this kind of care saves the taxpayers money. “The State of Oregon pays upwards of $800 for an emergency room visit for an uninsured person,” Korondo said. “If that person is suffering from a dental emergency brought on by poor dental hygiene, they can get antibiotics and pain pills; but that doesn't include the extraction, sedation or other costs to resolve the situation.

“But we can’t do it without our community’s support.” From The Heart Dentistry is a nonprofit subsidiary of The Korando Dental Group. “This year, we are seeking community members to become ‘Silent Heroes,’” said Korando. “Those who can contribute financially will make a difference in the lives of several dozen worthy men, women, and children again this year.”
