Annual Yachats River Valley Farm Tour returns Aug. 23

YACHATS — Mark your calendars and invite your friends for the annual Yachats River Valley Farm Tour on Sunday, Aug. 23, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

There will be homegrown fruits and vegetables, jams, jellies, fresh baked breads and pastries — something for everyone.

Forks Farm and many other farms along the north and south fork of the Yachats River open their farms to the public each year.

All participating farms are posted by a sign at each entrance or driveway.

Seeds of Oregon and R&B will offer native and floral plants.

Yaquina Nursery has several greenhouses growing thousands of cactus and succulents for sale. Farming cactus is a prickly job, so bring a camera.

The Yachats River Valley Farm Tour leads guests to area farms for fresh produce, stunning views and picnic lunches.

Triple D is a cattle ranch selling grass-fed beef and pasture run eggs.

StarShine Ranch features peacocks, llamas and alpacas.

The ranch also offers "U-Pick" fruit and berries and takes orders for grass-fed beef.

Bring a sack lunch and stroll along the river.

ELKS DONATE TO ROSEBURG VETS

COURTESY PHOTO

The Ladies of Elks and the Rolling Elks of the Florence Elks Lodge #1858 recently donated nearly 500 cookies, Levi's Jeans and other clothing to the Roseburg VA Medical Center. Leo and Shirley Stapleton, their daughter Sheryl Burkhart and grandsons, Cody and Zachary Burkhart, delivered the goods July 6. The Roseburg veterans look forward to the cookie delivery every July and December.

'Raw Canvas' returns to Playhouse this weekend

For one weekend only, the Florence Playhouse hosts a return engagement of Fools Haven theater company's production of "Raw Canvas," a one-woman play written by Diane-Barratt Walton and starring Nancy Hopps, as well as "Bits and Pieces: Theatre of the Absurd."

An evening performance is set for Saturday, Aug. 15, at 7 p.m., and there will be a matinee at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 16.

Performers in "Bits and Pieces" are veteran actors Joe Cronin and Judith Roberts, with newcomer Chris White.

"Raw Canvas" is a one-hour play, the personal saga of an artist. Hopps plays Rosalyn, an aspiring painter in Paris in 1952. She is deciding whether to stay and pursue her passion for painting — and face an uncertain future as a bohemian artist — or to return to a comfortable married life in Canada.

As she awaits the van that will take her and her toddler son to the ship home, she vividly unfolds her memories, her feelings and her vision.

Hopps says, "Rosalyn's words help me to remember that every moment is a moment of choice."

Playwright Walton's artist mother-in-law was the model for the story. Walton tailored the play to the talents of her friend Hopps, and asked Roberts to direct.

The Florence Playhouse is at 208 Laurel St. in Old Town, Florence.

The performance is recommended for mature audiences.

Tickets are $13, and may be purchased at the door or at On Your Feet with a Splash and Best for Hearing.
