WINNING NUMBER

COURTESY PHOTO

On Aug. 14 and 15, the Shorewood Retirement Residence, 1451 Spruce St., hosted an open house. During the event, several raffles were held. One winning ticket was awarded a 32-inch flat screen TV. The lucky winners were Bob and Denise Turney of Florence. The Turneys were not present at the drawing but were called and Bob Turney (above) came to the Shorewood to receive the prize.

Habitat for Humanity begins new hours

The Florence Habitat for Humanity ReStore expanded its hours this week and will now be open six days a week. New ReStore hours will be Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and closed on Sundays.

Customers can find great savings shopping at the ReStore with prices well below retail. An advantage to shopping at the ReStore is being able to fix up a home or apartment economically.

Donations come in throughout the month, so shop often for good buys on materials. Plus, purchases at the ReStore keep local dollars working in the Florence area.

Being a donor to Habitat's ReStore helps provide reusable building materials for sale in the store.

The ReStore is always interested in receiving donations of new or used appliances, bath fixtures, bricks and blocks, cabinets, doors, electrical supplies, flooring, furniture, garden tools, hardware, light fixtures, lumber and wood products, paints and stains.

Donating items to the ReStore keeps reusable materials out of landfills and reduces landfill fees. In addition, donations receive a tax receipt.

ReStore even offers pick up for items that are too big or awkward to fit in your vehicle.

Building supply retailers can donate surplus and discontinued inventory. Contractors can also donate surplus new building materials or reusable materials from remodels. Materials need to be in good usable condition.

Every purchase at the Habitat ReStore provides financial support to Florence Habitat for Humanity and their goal of building houses locally for deserving families.

Any family selected to receive a Habitat house must work 500 hours on Habitat for Humanity projects before they can become home owners.

Volunteers are an invaluable and integral part of the Habitat for Humanity team and help to make building houses possible.

With the new ReStore hours, more volunteers are needed to allow the store to be open longer hours.

Anyone who enjoys tinkering with and fixing up appliances, clocks, electronics and light fixtures would be a perfect fit as a volunteer for the store and its Habitat ReStore team.

For more information about volunteering in the ReStore, donating items or shopping, visit the Florence Habitat for Humanity ReStore at 2016 Highway 101, near Grocery Outlet, or call 541-997-5834.

LCC gears up for fall term with exciting new classes on Sept. 28

Fall term is almost here at LCC Florence, at 3149 Oak St., with classes beginning Sept. 28. Continuing education classes are filling up fast.

Offerings include a farm tour and beer tasting at Agrarian Ales in Coburg; a trip to the annual mushroom festival at the Mount Pisgah Arboretum; a holiday concert by OSU-Symphony Orchestra in Corvallis and a cooking series taught by Kelsey Terry, owner and chef at Homegrown Public House.

For more information, or to register, call 541-997-8444 or visit the Florence Center.
