

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

BRAVENEC—Doris Mae Bravenec, 88, of Florence, passed away Sept. 1, 2015, at Spruce Point Memory Care.

Doris Bravenec
Doris was born July 15, 1927, to Cecil Haag and Charlie Beason.

She moved to Florence from Dayton, Texas, 14 years ago and was married to John Bravenec, who preceded her in death.

Doris worked in the food service industry for many years. She lived most of her life in California. She also lived in Oklahoma and Texas.

She came to Florence to be the caretaker of Georgia Virgil's home and loved Oregon so much she stayed.

She enjoyed her trips up the river, to Randy's Riverview Market for breakfast, and her and Virgil in the boat.

She loved to travel. Even though her memory was failing she would ask Georgia, "When are we going to see Burl and Angelo."

Her last few years she lived in Spruce Points Memory Care, where she received great care by the staff. She enjoyed her weekly dinners and jaunts with Georgia Virgil.

She will be missed. Doris is survived by her children: Georgia A. Medeiros Sabourin and husband Virgil, Joetta A. Medeiros Vienna, Angelo K. Ornellas Simmons and wife Mary; grandchildren: Ashley Stone, Amber Stone, Shawn Medeiros and Danielle Vienna; great-grandchildren: Jaden Medeiros and Sebastian Medeiros; a brother, Burl Haag and wife Pat; nieces: Betty Jean Haag, Patty Haag Osterhout and husband Kevin; and a nephew, Craig Haag.

She was preceded in death by her parents and sisters Patricia Haag Wilson and Mary Belle Haag Hensley.

A celebration of her life will be held in Laughlin, Nev.

Donations in Doris' name can be made to the Florence Hospice.

CHAMBERLEN—Gail Farrell Chamberlen, 72, of Florence, passed away Sept. 12, 2015.

Gail was born March 7, 1943, in Vineburg, Calif., to Dale Farrell and Margaret Rubke Farrell.

She graduated from San Francisco State and taught school in Central California.

In 1970, she married Fred Chamberlen. They eventually settled in the Sonoma area where she was a bookkeeper and then nursery manager at Farrell's Home and Garden Center.

Gail and Fred moved to Florence in 1990.

She was a lifelong animal lover and one of those instrumental in beginning the Florence Area Humane Society, where she continued to help out as a volunteer. She also loved to travel, go camping and garden.

Gail was preceded in death by her parents and her brother, Ed Farrell.

Gail is survived by her husband, Fred Chamberlen; a brother, Bob Farrell; two nieces: Roxanne Shockey and Rachelle Mroczka; four great-nieces and nephews; stepson Richard (Rhonda) Chamberlen and stepdaughter Deborah (Chris Nottoli) Norton; step-grandchildren Dylan Cammille Chamberlen; and many extended-family members.

Per Gail's request, there will be no services.

Donations in Gail's memory can be made to the Florence Area Humane Society, 2840 Rhododendron Dr., or the Siuslaw Public Library, 1460 Ninth St.

Burns's Riverside Chapel is in charge of all arrangements.

RHODES—Douglas Rhodes, 94, formerly a 10-year resident of Florence, passed away on Monday, Sept. 7, 2015, in Portland, Ore., after a short illness.

Douglas Rhodes

Doug was born Nov. 25, 1920, in Huddersfield, Yorkshire, England, to Joseph and Lily Rhodes.

He immigrated through Canada to the United States and became a citizen in 1965.

During the war, he was a coal-mine foreman and spent the next 48 years in the United States as a machinist and tool-maker.

He was preceded in death by a brother. He is survived by three daughters and three grandchildren residing in the U.S. There is also a sister, two nephews and their children and grandchildren, all residing in England. He is also survived by Maryann, his loving partner of 17 years.

Doug, who would have celebrated his 95th birthday this year, enjoyed his walks with his beloved Maltese, "Tucker," and was always up to a little adventure, traveling around the area.

He was very interested in real estate, politics and current events. But his real love was country western music and he and Maryann greatly enjoyed dancing at the Elks Club in town. He owned numerous homes and rental properties during his time in Florence and he was blessed to have such great friends around him.

He will be missed. Arrangements are being handled by Burns's Riverside Chapel in Florence.

Per his request, there will be a private service held in a few weeks, and a celebration of his life will be held at a later date.
