

Join best-selling Oregon Author JANE KIRKPATRICK for this special event.

Jane will discuss her life as a writer and her work, including the beloved Where Lilacs Still Bloom.

Jane Kirkpatrick
at the Florence Events Center Friday, September 25 at 7 p.m.

Tickets are $8 in advance or $10 at the door www.FlorenceFestivalofBooks.org

High Cotton Country

One woman's struggle to overcome the past and find peace with herself

A Shadow Life
is expected to publish in early 2016

Leta McCurry writes women's and historical fiction and is drawn to telling stories about the fighting spirit of women as they struggle, not just to survive, but to rise above adversity with courage and honor and achieve their goals and dreams on their journey of self-discovery. McCurry says she is inspired by the inherent dignity and resilience of the human spirit and is amazed at how characters so often rise above themselves when faced with seemingly impossible obstacles. She writes strong secondary people, giving attention and dimension to the characters who play a major role in the journey of the main character.

Karen D. Nichols

Thornton House
*Mysterious Love
transcends time
& opens death's
door:
A spell-binding mystery with a dynamite ending*

The Unexpected Gift
*An inspirational novel: A marine reclaims purpose
and trust thru redemption, the love of a
childhood friend,
plus a special dog*

Second Chance Heart
*A stirring love story between a man, a woman & a child in a struggle
to reclaim trust.
How often does
one experience a miracle?*

New Release Triumph Over Fear

A Wildernes Tale: Lost and alone, a young woman and her dog face death-defying experiences in the wild. Can she find the pimeaval instinct, trust and inspiration to survive?

An award-winning artist and writer with BachStreet Gallery
www.florenceartists.com knichols222@q.com

Also available at Amazon.com or Backstreet Gallery