Fatal motorcycle crash shuts down Highway 101

Oregon State Police (OSP) and other emergency responders shut down a stretch of Highway 101 on Tuesday, Sept. 22, for about two hours due to a fatal motorcycle crash.

According to OSP, troopers received report of a crash involving multiple motorcycles around 2:20 p.m.

The crash occurred near milepost 173 north of Florence. Witnesses said three motorcycles were northbound on Highway 101 and trying to pass two vehicles in a no passing zone when the lead motorcycle abruptly slowed, causing all three motorcycles to collide.

One of the motorcycle operators, a 58-year-old male, was pronounced deceased at the scene.

The two other motorcycle operators (males ages 53 and 51) were transported to a local hospital with minor injuries.

All three riders were German citizens and attempts are being made to notify their families. Their names will be released when notification to next of kin has been made.

Highway 101 was closed for approximately two hours in both directions to allow the OSP investigation to be conducted.

Oregon State Police shut down both directions of Highway 101 Tuesday to investigate a fatal crash involving three motorcycles. Two adult males are in the hospital with minor injuries. No names have been released.

OSP was assisted by Western Lane Ambulance. Oregon Department of Transportation, the Lane County Sheriff's Office, Yachats Fire and Rescue and This is an ongoing investigation and more information will be released when it is available.

Police arrest transient accused of rape

Florence Police Department (FPD) arrested Brent Brant, 45, on Monday, Sept. 21, accusing him of rape.

According to Lt. John Pitcher, the FPD received a report at approximately 9:10 p.m. that a female had been raped.

The woman went to a residence in the Rhododendron Drive and Eighth Street area where she told the resident she had just been raped and asked for assistance.

Brent Brant

The police sent officers, who initiated an investigation.

The investigation is still ongoing, but the FPD arrested Brant, a transient in the area, accusing him of rape, sodomy and sex abuse.

Brant was transported to the Lane County Jail.
