

THE RECORD

OBITUARY

ROTHWELL — Muriel Rothwell, 86, of Florence, died Oct. 2, 2015, and is now alive forever with her Savior.

Muriel Rothwell

Muriel was born to James and Irene Bush on Dec. 18, 1928, in St. Clair Shores, Mich. She graduated from Lakeview High School and later earned degrees from Harding College (now university) in Arkansas, and from the University of Arkansas.

She returned to Michigan and taught at Lakeview High School until 1968, when she married her husband of 39 years, Edmund "Rocky" Rothwell. They lived in San Jose, Calif., until 1996, when they retired to Florence.

Muriel was preceded in death by her parents; a brother, Wesley Bush; her husband, Rocky; and two stepchildren.

She is survived by her brother, Lloyd Bush; three grandsons and six great-grandchildren.

Support Umpqua Community College relief

The relief effort has already started to aid those affected by the tragic Umpqua Community College (UCC) shooting on Thursday, Oct. 1.

Oregon State Police (OSP) and Douglas County offer the following ways to help the Roseburg community and to cope with trauma.

There are many ways to be supportive, but here is a list of official sources are recommending.

Donate to UCC relief funds:

- The Greater Douglas United Way at www.gduway.org/UCC.

- The Umpqua Community College Foundation: www.umpqua.edu/scholarships-donations.

Support a UCC solidarity effort.

- Display "I am UCC" or "We are UCC" or any other message that you are moved to share.

- Via social media, you can download and share the "I am UCC" image from The Ford Family Foundation at www.tfff.org/i-am-ucc.

- Donate blood at your local American Red Cross, www.redcrossblood.org, or the Lane County Blood Mobile in Florence on Monday, Oct. 12, at the Florence Events Center, 715 Quince St., from 11:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Call the blood mobile at 541-484-9111 for more information.

Use resources from the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration to cope
