overall. Junior Isaac Griffes was third in 10:14.59, followed by senior Tyler Williams in fourth place (10:14.96) sophomore Kyle King in fifth (10:16.80) and junior Jack Pickell placing sixth (10:38.16). Siuslaw junior Celie Mans was the first female across the finish, placing seventh overall with her time of 10:41.68.

Juniors Morgan Bingham and Destinie Tatum were second and third for the Vikings and 17th and 22 overall, respectively;

Bingham finished in 11:29.21 and Tatum ran 12:01.25.

District competition is Thursday, Oct. 22, beginning at noon at Tugman State Park, just north of North Bend on Highway 101.

Viks

from 1B

The final game saw the Vikings off to a quick 7-0 lead on seven consecutive service points from Scheer, including two kills from junior Elyssa Rose and a pair of aces from Scheer.

But once again Douglas rallied, tying the score at 8-8 before taking the lead on an ace.

The Vikings and Trojans traded points up to 12 before Douglas managed to take the match win, 15-12.

Coming into Thursday's road match at North Bend, Siuslaw desperately needed a win; that same night, second-place contender South Umpqua was expected to defeat winless Brookings-Harbor (0-9) easily. A loss for Siuslaw and win for the Lancers would have either dropped the Vikings into third place or forced a tie-breaker.

Fortunately, neither scenario played out as Siuslaw made quick work of the Bulldogs to clinch the Far West's No. 2 seed heading to the state play-in at the end of the month.

Junior HannahLeah Jakobsen had a standout night, scoring a team high 13 kills and 20 digs. Bartlett had 20 assists and 19 digs. Rose had nine kills and six blocks.

Freshman Makenzie York had five kills and two blocks for the Vikings.

Today, Siuslaw will compete in the Marshfield Tournament beginning at 8 a.m., with the state play-in game to be announced early next week.

View

from 1B

Rihanna sits for an interview with some lady getting drunk during lunch. She says she fell in love with her and then writes about how she Googles female anatomy post-childbirth, and I wonder why I read any of the story.

A woman named Jennifer Connell is the worst woman in the world today, suing her 12-year-old nephew for an "exuberant hug" that broke her wrist one afternoon in Westport, Conn.

The Jets have the second-best defense in the NFL. Saying the word "best" and Jets in the same sentence is hard to fathom, but the numbers don't lie.

Tom Brady's "guru" doctor is found to not be a doctor at all. How does that happen? That's almost as bad as Hillary with the emails. In the same way you would think that the president's staffers would have noticed that they all had .gov email accounts, you would think the Patriots would be on the lookout for an M.D. credential at the end of the doctor's name. It would just seem to make better sense.

What's next?

Manny Pacquiao wanting a rematch with Floyd Mayweather? Yes, turns out he did say that yesterday. Because that's something we all want to see. Mayweather just made $300 million for a fight that nobody wanted to watch in September. A rematch of a dud fight. That's what we have to look forward to?

Next you'll tell me that the Cubs will beat the Cardinals to advance to the NL Championship Series.

On second thought, don't. I've heard enough for one day.
