OBITUARIES

GREUEL—Kenneth W. Greuel, 83, of Florence, passed away Oct. 7, 2015.

Kenneth Greuel

Ken was born Feb. 8, 1932, in Los Angeles, Calif., and lived in Hollywood until he married and moved to Palmdale, Calif.

There, he owned and ran Weston Builders Supply for more than 50 years.

Later, he settled in Florence where he lived for many years. Ken loved to travel, play golf and enjoyed family both in Oregon and California.

He is survived by multiple family members, from the Greuel, Dawkins, Lake and Garrison families.

Ken was preceded in death by his first wife, Flora E. Greuel, and his second wife, Barbara S. Garrison Greuel. A celebration of life will be held Saturday, Oct. 18, from 1 to 3 p.m., at 75 Harbor St. in Florence.

At his request, private cremational rites were held.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

MYERS—Patricia (Pat) Myers, 75, died Oct. 8, 2015.

Patricia Myers

She was surrounded by her loving family at her home in Florence.

Pat was born Jan. 14, 1940, in Portland, Ore., to James and Phyllis Shaw.

Growing up, Pat enjoyed a lovely family life. She shared a happy and playful childhood with her sister, Judy.

However, Pat quite often said that the best years of her life were the 44 years she spent with her husband, Al Myers.

Pat and Al married on April 2, 1976, after several years of courtship.

In addition to finding "the love of her life," Pat gained six children: Rick, Rhonda, Rhoda, Rhochelle, Ron and Rhea ("the 6 Rs").

Pat and Al were fond of saying, "Pat married into the 'Von Trapp Family'...except that (sad, but true) none of The 6 Rs could sing."

Pat was an accomplished bowler, enjoyed playing golf, loved to read and was a great card player and puzzle solver.

Due to her sharp memory and a keen ability to store all kinds of trivia and information, it was common to hear family members say, "Ask Pat, she'll know!"

In addition to helping raise a large family, Pat was employed for 30 years with the phone company.

Upon retiring in 1996, Pat and Al fulfilled a dream of theirs by moving from Eugene to Florence. They enjoyed many years in Florence fishing, golfing and living in the community they loved to call home.

Pat lived her life with grace and always demonstrated a gentle, unconditional love to those in her life.

On many occasions, she expressed that she had no regrets and was happy for her beautiful life.

She remains an inspiration and beacon to her family who loves her and will miss her forever.

Pat is survived by her beloved husband, six children, 11 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren, her sister, three nieces, a nephew and three cousins.

Donations can be made in Pat's name to cancer research and finding a cure.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Do you remember the exploding whale?

Were you, a family member or a close friend in Oregon on Nov. 12, 1970? That's when engineers decided to use dynamite to dispose of a beached whale on the coast.

The Siuslaw News is searching for first-hand accounts of those who saw the whale, heard the explosion or were in the area. Contact reporter Chantelle Meyer by Friday, Nov. 6, if you have a picture or story you would like to share about one of the most infamous moments on the Oregon coast.
