The Vikings scored in all four quarters of Friday's homecoming game against the visiting Trojans, moving one step away from officially claiming the Far West's No. 3 spot when the regular season ends this Friday. For Siuslaw, a win at Brookings-Harbor would clinch the league's final playoff spot and, depending on how the cards stack up in rankings, maybe — just maybe — a home game should their rankings bump them up into the 4A's second-tier grouping.

While that is mostly out of Siuslaw's hands, the Vikings had

Heading into halftime at Mapleton's Homecoming game last Friday, the Sailors held a 30-22 lead in an impressive first-half performance that combined a strong running game with a successful series of air strikes from junior quarterback Hunter Simington to 6-foot-4 sophomore receiver Dominic Wells.

Less than three minutes into the first quarter, Mapleton finished off a 62-yard, five-play drive to end up at 4th-and-10, only to have junior runningback AJ Foster score on a 28-yard carry. A conversion by junior running back Tyler Packebush put
