Musician premieres new score Nov. 29

City Lights Cinemas will host the world premiere of a new musical score by award-winning composer Ken Wannberg, a Hollywood stalwart who spent his career working with some of the greatest directors of the age.

Wannberg will be premiering a new original score to the 1920 German Expressionist classic, "The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari," on Thursday Oct. 29 at 7 p.m.

Tickets are $10 for City Lights members and $15 for general admission.

Wannberg spent more than 40 years as an accomplished sound editor and composer and is best known for his work with John Williams, Steven Spielberg and George Lucas.

He began his career in 1967 with the film classic "Valley of the Dolls" and notched a key project with "Hello Dolly!" in 1969. From there, he mixed TV and film work before 1977's "Star Wars" and that same year's "Close Encounters of the Third Kind" launched his career into overdrive.

Wannberg remained active in Hollywood through 2005, finishing his career with projects for Spielberg's "Memoirs of a Geisha," and "Munich."

A lifelong dream of Wannberg's has been to compose and play an original score for "The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari," one of the towering achievements of 1920's German cinema, directed by Robert Wiene.

This silent film is "a perfect Halloween selection," says Michael Falter, co-owner of City Lights Cinemas. "The film has long been a source of inspiration to directors from around the world — even Tim Burton used the central figure of "The Somnambulist" as the model for Johnny Depp's character in "Edward Scissorhands."

"Ken is a true gentleman," says Susan Tive, co-owner. "We're excited to share his talent and color this Halloween with some Hollywood magic."

In addition to the performance of a new score, there will be a short introduction to German Expressionism and the career of Ken Wannberg by Michael Falter.
